2 Escapers Charged In Robbery, Car Theft

2 Other Inmates Hunted

Jury To Act In January

Charges were filed today against two Mansfield reformatory escapers who confessed robbing a farm family near Shiloh Oct. 9.

At the same time, Acting Supt. George J. Allarding of the reformatory reported the escape of two more inmates, the eleventh and twelfth who have fled OSR in about two weeks.

Julius Faulkenberg, 27, and Frederick L. Shaver, 23, who confessed the farm home robbery, were charged today with breaking and entering an inhabited dwelling at night, robbery, and operating a car without the owner's consent.

Prosecutor Harold Lutz said the charges were filed before noon today. Shaver and Faulkenberg are held in the reformatory pending hearing of their cases by the grand jury in January.

The men escaped the OSR cannery Oct. 7 and were captured Saturday by R. C. Ohl, superintendent of the cannery, as they walked along a highway near Winchester, Va. Ohl was on a week-end trip through Virginia when he recognized the fugitives.

According to sheriff's deputies, the pair broke into the home of J. E. Hollenbaugh, 75, near Shiloh, took $14 and clothing from the house, tied Hollenbaugh, his wife, and daughter to chairs, and then fled in the Hollenbaugh car.

CONFESS ROBBERY

Shaver and Faulkenberg confessed the acts to Allarding yesterday at the reformatory. The Hollenbaugh auto has been recovered in Cumberland, Md.

Allarding said the inmates who fled today were Frank C. Thompson, 24, and Paul Eugene Anderson, 22. Both were reported missing from the horse barn at 6:30 a. m.

Thompson was received last March 4 from Franklin county to serve one to 15 years for burglary and Anderson was received March 2 from Stark county to serve one to three years for issuing checks with insufficient funds.

Supt. Allarding said both men would have appeared before the parole board in January.

So far, seven of the 12 escapers have been recaptured and returned.

Spurns War Chest Plan

Green Declines To Join Lewis

WASHINGTON — (UP) — AFL President William Green has rejected John L. Lewis' proposal that nine AFL unions join with the United Mine Workers in setting up a $2,500,000 weekly strike fund for the CIO steelworkers.

In a letter to Lewis yesterday, Green dismissed the idea as "impossible and impracticable." He said, however, that individual AFL unions could contribute to the striking steelworkers — provided steelworkers' President Phillip Murray asked for help.

There was no immediate indication that any individual AFL union would voluntarily contribute to the proposed strike fund or that Murray had any intention of appealing for aid.

Lewis advanced his plan last week. He proposed that nine wealthy AFL unions and his own union each contribute $250,000 weekly to help the steelworkers in their current strike for noncontributory pensions.

In his reply, Green reiterated the traditional AFL policy that merger of all labor unions into one giant organization must precede any attempt to set up a common fund or to cooperate in he field of politics.

Amoy is in Fukien province, 350 miles north of Canton, the former nationalist capital now in communist hands.

Would Aid Handicapped

Mansfield Seeking 'Goodwill Industry'

To help provide jobs for the city's more than 130 physically handicapped persons, plans were under way today in Mansfield to bring a chapter of Goodwill Industries, Inc., here.

Rev. C. W. Stoneburner, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church, is serving as chairman of the committee which has arranged a meeting for Friday at 3 p. m. in the D. A. V. headquarters, 102½ North Walnut street, which will be open to the public.

Guest speaker at the meeting will be Dr. Frank M. Baker, director of the Cleveland Goodwill Industries, who will show moving pictures of the work accomplished in such a project, Rev. Stoneburner said.

The idea of promoting Goodwill Industries for Mansfield is an outgrowth of the local observance of national "Employ the Handicapped Week" a short time ago when only 5 physically-handicapped job applicants out of a total of 132 seeking work were placed in Mansfield industry.

Rev. Stoneburner said today that Goodwill Industries is a community project, sponsored by churches in many of the cities in which it operates. Among the employment possibilities which can be offered through the plan are the refinishing and re-upholstering of discarded furniture, the repairing, cleaning and pressing of clothing, all of which is re-sold with profits used to pay the handicapped workers for their labor.

In Cleveland, Rev. Stoneburner said, a blind woman has for a number of years successfully operated a store where secondhand books are sold, under the supervision of Goodwill Industries. The plan also would include teaching broom-making, rug-making and other crafts to blind and physically-handicapped persons, he said.

At the present time chapters of the Industries are being successfully operated in Akron, Ashtabula, Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Lorain, Toledo, Youngstown and Zanesville.

Working with Rev. Stoneburner on plans for the Friday meeting are Marshall R. Seybold, chairman of Mansfield's "Employ the Handicapped" committee; Mrs. Frances Frangella, Richland county Tuberculosis association case worker, and Norman Yarger, representative of the CIO labor council.

Fog Delays Mercy Flight

Planes Race Death To Save Young Child

CHICAGO — (UP) — A two-year-old boy, flown a third of the way around the world in a race against death, landed here today after fog forced his plane to spend three precious hours circling the city.

A police escort cleared streets with screaming sirens as an ambulance raced Bryan McAllister to Children's Memorial hospital for treatment of a kidney ailment complicated by bronchial pneumonia.

Bryan, accompanied by his missionary - mother, had left darkest Africa just 36 hours before so that doctors at the famed hospital here might attempt to save his life.

A dense fog enshrouded the city's airports when his Capital airlines plane arrived over the city at 5:01 a. m. CST (6:01 a. m. EST) and it was held in the air with 10 other craft until the morning sun burned the mist away.

When it landed at 7:48 a. m., the plane still had enough gas in its tanks for an hour's flight. The 10 other ships also landed safely.

The plane had attempted to land at O'Hare field, 25 miles northwest of its normal landing at Municipal field, but that also was "socked in."

The boy and his mother began their race at Johanesburg, Union of South Africa—8,278 miles from Chicago, Sunday night when the boy developed the pneumonia.

The Pan American World airways plane landed at New York airport about midnight. Engines warmed up, the Capital airlines Nighthawk taxied close to the giant trans-Atlantic craft to allow Bryan to be transferred with the least amount of pain, then sped to Chicago.

Bryan's parents are missionaries attached to the Evangelical Alliance mission in Swaziland Union of South Africa. His father, Earl, remained in Africa.

Two Ships Collide, 21 Perish

British Ships Crash At Sea

ROSYTH, Scotland — (UP) —The heavily-laden British coastal steamer Maystone sank with 21 men missing early today after ramming the tug-towed British aircraft carrier Albion in gale-lashed seas.

Three of the 24 crew members aboard the Maystone were picked up at the scene. Coast guard lifeboats scoured the seas for seven hours after the collision without result.

The collision opened a deep gash in the stern of the Albion and the carrier, so new she was not yet in commission, was reported in danger of sinking.

WATER POURS IN

Some seven hours after the accident the Albion radioed that she was shipping water through the hole in her stern and might need further assistance.

Three tugs, which were towing the warship to Rosyth from the river Tyne in northeast England, began moving the damaged carrier into shallow water in St. Abbs bay in southern Scotland.

The Albion, rumored to be one of Britain's hush-hush atomic age carriers, was laid down in 1944 and launched only last May by Mrs. Clement Attlee, wife of the prime minister.

The Maystone, a 2,025-ton freighter loaded with 2,600 tons of coal from Scotland, was steaming for London with a crew of 24 aboard.

A brief message from the Albion indicated the Maystone sank immediately after colliding with the Albion on the port (left) side near the propellors.

Three men of the Maystone's crew were rescued by the tugs towing the Albion. No others were found at the scene and the tugs continued towing the damaged Albion to drydock at Rosyth.

Hit Parade Leader Dies

NEW YORK — (UP) — Mark Warnow, 47, orchestra leader on the radio program "Your Hit Parade" since 1937, died yesterday about one hour after he entered Polyclinic hospital for a checkup. Death was attributed to a heart ailment. He went to the hospital after complaining he felt exhausted.

Warnow, brother of Orchestra Leader Raymond Scott, directed numerous radio programs and was credited with aiding the careers of such singing stars as Kate Smith, Morton Downey, and Gertrude Niesen. He came to the United States from Manastrischt, Russia, in 1907.

As a violinist, he started his career in amateur orchestras and Salvation Army bands.

He became first violinist with the Columbia Broadcasting system in 1929 and eventually became CBS staff conductor.

NEW YORK — (AP) — For seven and one-half wearying months, author Russell Janney sat on the jury in the communist conspiracy trial.

Last Friday the trial ended. Janney went home, and found waiting for him—a summons to serve on another jury.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. — (AP) —An end to the four-month-old, violent Bell Aircraft strike appeared at hand today. Striking CIO United Auto Workers were scheduled to vote tonight on tentative settlement terms.

Drive Off To Good Start

A spirit of optimism prevailed in the headquarters of Mansfield's 1949 Community Chest drive today as reports turned in by some of the 800 volunteer workers revealed that a total of $29,398 had been pledged by noon, the second day of the drive to raise $141,663.

This marks an increase of $8,825 over the amount which had been subscribed on the second day of last year's campaign.

That all committee chairmen and their workers are making every effort to reach their quota early was attested in the report that both the general and professional divisions of the drive have signed exactly 27.5 per cent of their quota already.

Mrs. C. H. Guy and Mrs. Ralph Z. Sorenson, co-chairmen of the general division, reported at noon today they had raised $3,210 of their $11,500 quota, while Charles Robertson, chairman of the professional division, turned in $1,907 on his goal of $6,925.

Another close race to reach quotas was evident in the Industrial "A" and "B" divisions whose figures were exactly $5 apart today. Robert M. Myers and Howard Richards of Industrial "A" reported a total of $8,870 raised while Industrial "B," with Marshall Seybold and Roy Waxler as chairmen, reported a total of $8,865.

James R. McConnell, chairman of this year's drive, urged all workers to stop at campaign headquarters in the A. B. Grafton company salesroom on Park avenue west, and check the progress of the various divisions, which are posted prominently on a large scoreboard as soon as reports come into the campaign headquarters.

Plane Crash Kills Five

3 Bodies Found, Two Infants Lost

PROVINCETOWN, Mass. — (AP) — A small chartered plane plunged into the sea off this town at the tip of Cape Cod yesterday taking the lives of three adults and possibly two babies.

The dead were identified as Pilot Daniel Lacey, 26, of Westwood, Mrs. Harold Keppel, about 30, wife of a New York Times photo-engraver, and Mrs. Edward S. Davis, about 40, of Provincetown.

Mrs. Keppel's two children, Paul, 2½, and Bruce, about one year, were listed as missing.

The bodies were recovered by the coast guard cutter Agushnet about four miles off Race Point.

The coast guard resumed search for the babies early today—but doubted they would be found alive.

Snow Storm Lashes West

(By the Associated Press)

A swirling white preview of winter banked five-foot snow drifts in Montana today and dipped temperatures in the Rocky mountains area as low as 12 degrees.

The windy snowfall was in contrast to the pleasant autumn weather which prevailed over most of the eastern half of the country.

North winds, recorded at 55-mile speed in top gusts, piled the snow which fell mainly on the eastern slopes of the northern Rockies and in the northwest plains area adjacent. The actual fall ranged from six inches at Cut Bank, Mont., and five inches in Yellowstone National park to approximately one inch in most of the area.

No emergency conditions were caused by the storm, authorities said. The early morning minimum of 12 degrees above zero was reported at Cut Bank. The mercury was under the freezing mark at most Montana points.

Air Chief Hits Back At Navy

Defends Air Force In Row

WASHINGTON — Air Secretary Symington, hitting back at Navy critics of the Air Force accused them today of peddling old, "false" tales and of letting possible enemies know "how this country would be defended."

Symington hinted, too, that the Navy is circulating a second anonymous document. He said one is in circulation that attempts to rip apart strategic bombing and is "far more dangerous than the first."

Symington was before the House armed services committee, leading off the air force rebuttal to navy complaints against defense policies.

In long hearings, the navy has complained that present policy puts too much stress on the air force B-36 big bomber and cuts down on the navy.

Admiral after admiral has taken the stand to belittle the possibilities of the bomber. Their general contention has been that the big plane could not get through an enemy's defenses and would accomplish little if it did.

STILL BEST BOMBER

Symington said the B-36 still is "the best long-range bomber known."

He added:

"The ability to fight from our own shores at the start of any war should not be looked on with contempt."

This is wind-up week for the sensational hearings which began Oct. 6. The navy has had its "day in court" and the air force, the army and Secretary of Defense Johnson, its targets, now get a chance to reply.

Barring some change in schedule, three army men are to follow the air force to the witness stand. They are Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, former chief of staff; Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff; and Gen. J. Lawton Collins, chief of staff who was recalled from an inspection trip to the Orient to appear.

Johnson's testimony, with which the hearings will probably conclude, will top the proceedings. A dramatic session is anticipated when the defense chief crosses swords with Rep. Vinson (D) Ga., the committee's chairman, who has criticized him.

'Last' Coal Talk Starts

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. — (INS) — John L. Lewis and soft coal operators took a final fling today at negotiating a new coal contract before the government moves into the five week old coal strike.

Industry representatives saw little change of an agreement that would send 375,000 striking miners back to the pits and openly forecast federal intervention in the deadlock.

One prominent coal man said the mine operators are firmly united against Lewis' demand for contract improvements which the union estimated would cost 30 to 35 cents a ton.

Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching told newsmen that the next government move in the coal situation "will depend on what takes place at the meeting at White Sulphur Springs."

Massillon Gets All Votes In High Poll

Cuff Stuff

By Fred Tharp

News-Journal Sports Editor

MASSILLON is truly "Football Town, U. S. A." . . . Holiday magazine calls Tigertown that and, of course, most persons from these parts agree. . . . Ohio newspapers have long chronicled two deeds of the Massillons. . . . Just today all sports writers in the state hopped on the Washington high bandwagon and named the Tigers, the best there is. . . . National magazines have had articles about the Tigers before but nothing like the nine-page spread in Holiday. . . Then along comes the New York Sunday News for this week with another yarn on the Massillons. . . . So Mansfield high school footballers can have no doubt this week that they're booked against the finest high school team in the country.

THE SUNDAY NEWS article gets underway with "America's hottest football town is probably Massillon, Ohio, where they turn out grid stars by the dozen." . But let's look at the stuff from Holiday:

"In Massillon, scholastic football is a communal hobby which has upgraded as educational system, rebuttressed family life by stimulating greater interest in kids, and eliminated much of the juvenile delinquency. The loungers in the lobby of a Massillon hotel state that crooks have gone straight, that divorced couples have remarried and that alcoholics have been both made and cured under the stimulus of rampaging Tiger teams."

★

SOME OF THE interesting facts from the Holiday article follow: Paul Brown was not a native born Massillonite but moved from Norwalk to Tigertown when he was 12 . From 1933 until now, the Tigers have won 141 games, lost 15 and tied nine . . . Washington high has nine mythical state titles to its credit in that span . Massillon's electric load is lighter during high school games as a survey has shown that most homes go dark at gametime since the residents move to the stadium . Massillon drew a record 187,000 fans to home games in 1945 (that's when Mansfield's Augie Morningstar coached at Massillon) . . . Chuck Mather, the 34-year-old Washington coach, had only been a head mentor six and one half years yet his teams have won 56 games, lost five and tied three . . . About Mather the magazine says, "Like all Ohio coaches, he views defeat as some cosmic counterplot against the efforts of the righteous, but unlike many of them he accepts responsibility for it when it happens" . . . Actually Massillon does not hold an advantage over its traditional rival Canton McKinley In the long series, Canton has won 25 games, Massillon 23 and five have been ties.

Indians Buy Pitcher

CLEVELAND —(AP)— Purchase of pitcher Al Aber from Spartenburg, S. C., of the Tri-state league, an Indian farm, was announced last night by the Cleveland Indians. He will report to the Indians' training camp at Tucson, Ariz., next spring.

Mansfield Moves Up In Balloting

Its unanimous — Massillon's mighty Tigers are Ohio's No. 1 high school football team.

For the first time in history, every first place vote in both the Associated Press and International News Service polls this week went to one team. Twenty-four ballots cast in each poll listed Massillon as tops.

Thus when Mansfield invades the Washington High stadium Friday, there will be no question anywhere but that they are battling the state's finest.

AP	INS
1. Massillon, 240	Massillon, 240
2 Cant. McK 192	Cant. McK., 208
3 Hamilton, 155	Toledo Lib., 184
4 Toledo Lib., 144	Hamilton 140
5. Findlay, 123	Lakewood, 132
6 Lakewood 114	MANSFIELD, 88
7 MANSFIELD, 107	Findlay, 60
8 Fremont Ross 94	Toledo Waite 72
9. Toledo Waite 83	Middletown, 32
10 Springfield, 81	Zanesville, Wooster, Fremont, Springfield, and Circleville, (tie) 27.

Other vote-getters:

AP—Middletown Martins Ferry, Louisville Cuyahoga Falls, Vermilion, Circleville, Zanesville, Cincinnati Purcell, Wooster, Canton Timken, Columbus North, Akron South Barberton, Akron St. Vincent, Toledo Whitmer, Akron West, Canton Central Catholic, New Philadelphia.

INS—Martins Ferry 22, Canton Central Catholic 22, Louisville 16, Canton Timken 10, Cincinnati Purcell 7, Vermilion 6, Toledo Whitmer 3 and New Philadelphia 3.

Previously Canton McKinley and a few others had slipped in for first place votes but this week the Tigers stand alone. Should Mansfield upset the Massillon applecart this week, McKinley would likely back into the throne.

Massillon and McKinley meet in the season's finale.

Senior high itself took big strides this week, moving all the way from 12th to sixth in the INS voting and advancing from eighth to seventh in the AP. The Tygers displaced Martins Ferry in the AP rating after holding eighth for two straight weeks. Martins Ferry was beaten by Triadelphia, 7-6.

As far as Mansfield is concerned the principal difference between the two polls is that Findlay is rated two places above the Tygers by the AP writers, and one spot below by INS.

Canton McKinley held second after squeaking past Toledo Waite, 7-0. Hamilton Public and Toledo Libbey are third in one poll and fourth in another while Lakewood is fifth in the INS and sixth in AP.

Sandusky, thumped resoundly by Fremont, fell from the voting this week while Wooster, tied 7-7 dropped to a tie for tenth in INS and 19th in AP. No other area teams were mentioned.

J. Mize Makes Mucho Money

CINCINNATI — (INS) — Big John Mize did all right financially for his 13-game stint with the world champion New York Yankees of the American league this season.

An announcement by baseball commissioner A. B. Chandler disclosed yesterday the 37-year-old slugging first-baseman was voted $2,832.77—a half share—in World Series money. In addition he picked up $10,000 in regular salary money.

In his 13 games Mize went to bat 23 times and picked up six hits. In the series he contributed two important pinch-hits. All in all, he got $1604 per bingle.

58 College Squads Unbeaten In Football

By CARL LUNDQUIST

NEW YORK — (UP) — There were 58 undefeated and untied college football teams strutting about the nation today.

But of that number only four could claim absolutely perfect records. Clarion, Pa., Teachers, St. Vincent of Pennsylvania, Gannon of Pennsylvania and Morris Harvey of West Virginia not only were undefeated and untied, but also unscored upon.

The coast-to-coast United Press poll discovered 19 of the unbeaten - untied in the mid-west, 18 in the east, 10 in the south, five in the far west, five in the southwest and one in the Rocky mountains.

Among the so-called big name schools, there were California, Kentucky, Army, Cornell, Pittsburgh, Minnesota, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Baylor, North Carolina, Virginia, Penn, Wyoming and Fordham.

Army stacked up as the greatest offensive team among the major elevens with 164 points in four games, an average of 41 per game.

Clarion totaled 142 points against its zeroed opponents. St. Vincent piled up 92 points in four games. Ganan, which did not have a footgall team last season, has 71 points for three games and Morris Harvey a mere 35 points in three games.

Hardin College of Texas has the unique distinction of the most victories this season, six in a campaign which began back on Sept. 10 when most schools were just issuing full uniforms. Five more games remain on the Hardin schedule this year.

Many of the 1948 unbeaten and untied teams are back on the list. California finished its regular season with a perfect slate, but lost to Northwestern in the Rose Bowl. Occidental, Cal., college now has a two-year string of 11 victories. Notre Dame is unbeaten in 32 straight, but has two tied in that streak.

Among the other repeaters on the perfect-record list are Valley City, N. D., Middle Tennessee, Austin Peay State of Tennessee, West Chester, Pa., and Florida A and M.

Notre Dame Runs Away With Football Poll Lead

BY JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK—(AP)— Notre Dame's super performance against a highly rated Tulane team last Saturday apparently has convinced most of the nation's football experts that the Irish belong in a class by themselves.

In contrast to last week, when Notre Dame barely won the No. 1 spot from Army, the country's sports editors and sportscasters voted the Irish a solid first choice today in the third weekly Associated Press poll.

A week ago the Irish nosed out the Cadets by 30 points. Today, Notre Dame received nearly 200 points more than the West Pointers. Of the 179 voting experts, 146 named the South Bend eleven first on their ballots.

It's been many years since a team has dominated at AP poll so completely. In all, the undefeated Irish attracted, 1,745 points by the devastating 46-7 rout of the Green Wave of New Orleans.

Army, which received 58 first place votes a week ago, got only 10 this time despite its handy 54-14 romp over Harvard. Those ballots, however, together with numerous seconds, thirds and fourths, gave the Cadets 1,552 points to rank right behind Notre Dame and well in front of third place Minnesota.

Bernie Bierman's Gophers enhanced their Rose Bowl chances by handing tough Ohio State a 27-0 trimming. This one-sided triumph brought them eight first place votes and a total of 1,370 points, to boost them one notch from fourth to third.

Others in the first ten with their votes included: Oklahoma, fourth, 1,171; California, fifth, 875; North Carolina, sixth, 856; Kentucky, seventh, 798; Cornell, eighth, 345; Rice, ninth, 166 and Texas, tenth, 136.

Cast Is Named For Saturday Wrestle Show

Supporting cast to the Lord Blears-Don Eagle wrestling classic in the Ashland road armory Saturday was announced today by Promoter Clete Kauffman.

Dr. Ed Meske and Ali Pasha, the terrible Turk, battle in the one-hour semi final while the 30-minute preliminary pits Tommy Martindale against Salvatore Balboa. The latter pair of performers lean toward the scientific aspect of the mat game and Kauffman has predicted a fast, clean match.

Meske was one of the participants in the near riot which developed last week at the armory. He had been the "clean" style grunt and groaner in a match with the super-rough Blears. The English star and his manager got roundly cuffed, around after the second fall and Blears would not return for the deciding fall.

Blears was allowed to return this week only under the provision that Capt. Leslie Holmes, the manager, does not appear in the arena.

Kauffman cautioned fans that they must get their tickets for the show early. Last time the speedy Eagle appeared here, customers were turned away at the door the night of the show.

Tickets are available at the City News.

Play At Home

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Cleveland's rebuilt Barons of the American hockey league will put on their first home show at the arena tonight in an exhibition contest with the Detroit Red Wings of the national league.

Glass-Enclosed Arena Planned At Covington

CINCINNATI — (AP) — The Cincinnati Enquirer said today a $1,000,000 glass-enclosed sports arena was being planned for nearby Covington, Ky., by a group of Covington sports enthusiasts.

The Enquirer quoted one of the promoters as saying the arena would be used for year-round sports events. It would have a seating capacity of 7,500.

Long Grid Win Streak At Stake

One of Ohio's longest schoolboy football winning streaks will be at stake when Johnny Appleseed junior high faces the Madison reserve team at 7 p. m. tomorrow at Arlin field.

The game will be the first of a double-header with John Simpson slated to go against the Bellville reserves in the nightcap.

Appleseed won eight straight ball games last year under Coach Jim Lymper and has racked up three in a row this year under the tutelage of Paul Snyder. The Pioneers are unscored upon this season, having shut out Bellville, Shelby, and Ashland reserve teams.

GOOD CONDITION

Snyder reports his team in good condition for the game and will start the same lineup as beat Shelby last week. That would be: Frank Brandt and Bob Diemer at ends, Jim Perry and Ernie Anderson at tackles, Bud Chamberlain and George Reese or Mickey Rupp at guards, Jack McBride at center, Jerry Howell at quarterback, Ned Diemer at fullback and Darce Shasky and Jim Whitzky at the halves.

Simpson, on the other hand is badly crippled by the game. Tackle Lanny Sziraki is out with a "strep" throat, Guard Dave Letizia has an infected gland and Quarterback Paul Jaynes has a pulled leg muscle. Jaynes will probably start but will be pulled out immediately if Simpson gets ahead.

Bands of both junior high schools will be on hand for the twin bill. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 for students.

Rangers Set 5 Practices

Coach Jim Lymper has called practice for five days this week for the Mansfield Rangers in preparation for Sunday's inportant Ohio Football league game with the Massillon Progressive Chevrolets.

The Rangers, who have been beaten only once in league play, can tie Massillon for the league championship by winning Sunday. The game will be played at Stadium field.

Lymper said that the squad will be in good condition for Sunday with the exceptions of Al Schwaner, Harold Luckie and Bill Yosick. Luckie has missed several games while Schwaner and Yosick aggravated old injuries Sunday.

Louis To Appear In Columbus Ring

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Ohio sporting enterprises announced today that Joe Louis, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, will appear in Columbus in a four-round exhibition Nov. 1.

Jerry Weiner, matchmaker for the newly-formed ring promotional group, said no opponent has been picked for the ex-champ, but that "Louis told us he'd appear against anybody we named."

Tyger Footballers To Work In Secret

The Mansfield Tyger footballers will practice under wraps—at least as far as the public is concerned—this week in preparation for their game with the mighty grid-iron horde from Washington high of Massillon.

Coach Augie Morningstar made the announcement of closed practice sessions last night at the Tyger Booster club meeting at Senior high school. In fact, Augie said little else of plans for the BIG game. He did go over the weights and playing potentials of the Washington high gridders but said "all other information you'll have to get from the newspapers."

About the players themselves, Morningstar enthused, "They're a bunch of scrappers. They'll be in there."

A bit of pep was injected into the meeting, however, when a dozen students made a turn around the gymnasium chanting, "Mansfield beat Massillon, Mansfield Beat Massillon."

The Tyger coach said that many interested persons had sent cards to the boys and "it makes us (the coaches) fell good and makes the kids feel good."

These missives are posted on the bulletin board in the Arlin Field dressing room.

Many questions on the Euclid game of last week were answered by the genial Mansfield coach.

Here's some of his remarks: "I felt good about Johnny Bricker breaking loose. He's been trying so hard. "We don't ask any odds in a ball game. We tackle their ball carriers as hard as we can but still play for the sport and the fun of it. And if any players have slugging on their mind they can't be thinking about football. We're only interested in getting touchdowns."

Baylor Gridders In Midst of Race For Championship

WACO, Tex. — (UP) — Baylor University, which hasn't won a southwest conference championship in a quarter century, loomed very much in the title picture today—thanks to an almost precision - perfect senior passing tandem.

Neither quarterback Adrian Burk nor end J. D. Ison lead their departments in yards gained, but this duo has been tremendously responsible for Baylor's four straight victories.

When the clutch moment arrives, it's almost certain the 190-pound Burk will cock his arm and fire a bullet pass to the sticky-fingered Ison.

Of the 68 passes Burk has tossed this season, 25 of them have gone to Ison—and 24 times Ison has held onto the ball to pick up 235 yards and three touchdowns.

Ideals or Not, Gophers Will Play In Bowl

CHICAGO — (INS) — Frank McCormick, Minnesota's athletic director, spiked reports that the Gophers will snub a Rose bowl invitation — if, as and when — during a talk before the Chicago quarterback club.

McCormick addressed the quarterbacks yesterday and said:

"Minnesota is opposed to all post - season games. However, Minnesota is a member of the western conference and since the majority favors the Rose bowl contract, we will play there if asked."

Coach Frank Leahy of Notre Dame, also a quarterback guest, explained his team's 46-7 win over Tulane last Saturday with:

'Tulane seemed to be having an off day."

Sign College Ace

PHILADELPHIA — (UP) — The Philadelphia Phillies today announced the signing of Emanuel "Sonny" Amodio, Brooklyn right-handed pitcher, who won seven games and lost only one during his college career at St. John's of Brooklyn.

Matty Bell Rates High As 'Picker'

DALLAS —(AP)— Coach Matty Bell of Souhern Methodist was feeling his oats today. He figured he had won his spurs as a football prognosticator and that he had wiped away forever his tag of "Moanin' Matty."

It was Bell who last week predicted Rice would beat his team by one or two touchdowns. "If I was a sports writer I would pick it like that," quoth the SMU coach.

Today he had a slight sneer for the sports writers, practically all of whom selected Southern Methodist to win.

The score was 41-27 in favor of Rice.

Bell also predicted—before the season started—that Southern Methodist would lose four games this year. So it's one down and three to go.

Matty says the second one will come Saturday when his Methodists play undefeated, untied Kentucky.

"We have been executed once and we'll be executed again," said Bell mournfully. "Look at the record. Kentucky beat Louisiana State 17-0, Louisiana State beat Rice 14-7 and Rice beat us badly."

Bucks Get 'Cage' Plays for Wisconsin Battle

Wes Fesler Moans Lack of Scrimmages

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Coach Wesley Fesler of Ohio State scheduled another "dummy" scrimmage for his players today, fearful of adding more injuries to his squad before this week's game with Wisconsin.

The Bucks yesterday went through a practice session lasting into the twilight hours, after which Fesler commented:

"Well, they're certainly not 'down.'"

Fesler gave the team a whole new string of offensive play variations, some of which had so much ball tossing they looked more like basketball plays than gridiron strategy. But Fesler is worried because he dares not put the team through a hard workout.

He told the weekly press and radio luncheon yesterday:

"I'd give my shirt if I could hold a rough, tough offensive scrimmage Wednesday."

The injury situation continues the most critical aspect of the Buck grid picture. Most seriously hurt are centers Jack Lininger and Bob McCullough and fullbacks Vic Janowicz and Pete Perini.

After two days of treatments, McCullough's injury remains, according to Dr. Richard Patton, assistant team physician, "a very sore shoulder."

The prospects are brighter for Lininger, who suffered a pulled ankle tendon, although trainers report he's still a doubtful starter against the Badgers.

Janowicz, who suffered an injury against Southern California a week ago Saturday, may see action this week. According to Fesler, "if there's any possibility that he can play at all, he will."

Perini, with a pulled leg muscle, was out of uniform yesterday and his appearance against Wisconsin seems doubtful.

To top his troubles, Fesler "had the word" from Buck Scout Ernie Godfrey that Wisconsin will be another tough opponent —the third in four games.

GOOD CHANCE

"Wisconsin has a good chance to beat us," said Godfrey. "They have good kicking, good passing, good speed and good morale. They claim the lightest but fastest backfield in the conference.

"They have a junior team — an eager team. They have the line strength, backfield speed and morale to match Minnesota. We'll have our hands full."

Wisconsin last week defeated Navy, 48-13, and also defeated Marquette, tied Illinois and lost to California.

Burson Gets Hand As United Press Lineman of Week

EVANSTON, ILL., — (UP) — Northwestern's Don Burson, veteran quarterback in danger of losing his job previous to last Saturday's 21-20 Wildcat victory over Michigan, was named United Press midwest player-of-the-week today for his part in that triumph.

Burson's inability to get started in Northwestern's first three games was credited no little to the Wildcat's losing to Minnesota and Pittsburgh, and Coach Bob Voights was inclined to use understudy Bob Flowers more and more as an alternate.

It was expected before Saturday's game that Flowers might play about half of the time, but the Lakewood, O., senior took over with such authority there was no need for a change. The Wildcats under his leadership looked like the Rose Bowl champions of old.

He passed for two touchdowns, handled the ball with the skill of a magician, did the kicking, and pulled plays out of the Wildcat bag of tricks that bewildered the usually-sharp Wolverines.

He passed only eight time, but with telling effect. He missed only three, and hit five for 124 yards, two of them for the aforementioned scores.

Baron Puckster Leads In Scoring

Bloody Nose Prize For Go

SALT LAKE CITY — (INS) — lah's pride, Rex Layne, climbed into the ring last night at Salt Lake City with NBA heavyweight champ Ezzard Charles and about all he got was a bloody nose and a boxing lesson.

Charles' appearance in the Fairgrounds coliseum was the first of a series of exhibitions. From Salt Lake City he goes to Los Angeles.

Layne was almost even with Charles on the weight, at 186 to the champion's 188, and he tried hard with the pillow-weight gloves, but was unable to land a solid punch.

Seerey Is Cut Adrift By Sox

CHICAGO — (AP) — Pat Seerey much - traveled outfielder who played with five different teams last season, and pitcher Jim Goodwin today were released outright by the Chicago White Sox to the Memphis Chicks of the southern association.

Goodwin, a left-hander, was on option to Memphis last season, fashioning a 7-5 record.

He made his longest stand with San Antonio, hitting, .213 in 32 games. In 18 games for the Kansas City Blues, Seerey hit .192.

Lujack Steps Into Luckman's Job

By KEN OPSTEIN

CHICAGO — (INS) — Sid Luckman may be the greatest T-formation quarterback of all time just as Coach George Halas claims but the onetime Columbia passing wizard is no longer Mr. Quarterback of the Chicago Bears.

This is Luckman's eleventh year with Poppa Bear Halas' professional football behemoths of the midwest and probably his last. Young Johnny Lujack is now the number one man in the offensive operations.

It's sometimes hard for an athlete to realize he's no longer the man he once was. But Luckman must have known it in Sunday's game against the champion Philadelphia Eagles.

That was an important game for the Bears and in important games the strongest lineup is always needed. Lujack not only started at quarterback but played the entire contest on offense. Luckman sat on the bench for the first time in his football career.

He watched his successor complete 16 of 27 passes for 258 yards and lead the Bears to a 38 to 21 triumph. He watched his teammates shower their praise upon Lujack. Only a little while ago all this praise was for him.

There wasn't any jealousy in seeing Lujack acclaimed the Bears' new hero. It was simply a realization that he was nearly 33 years old.

Football is a tough game after 30. Time was, however, when Luckman was named the outstanding player in the National Professional Football league.

He was selected as quarterback on the conference's All-Star team six times and record books showed that he once threw five touchdown passes in a single game. Countless other records also have the name of Luckman after them.

He was the key man on the Bears' championship teams of 1940-41-43 and '46. Notre Dame, Stanford, Columbia and West Point asked him to act as a special instructor on the T-formation.

No one can take this football knowledge away from him. He undoubtedly would make a good coach. As a player, however, Luckman has bowed his head before old man time.

TIGER MAINSTAYS—These youngsters and coaches will guide the destinies of the Washington high school football team of Massillon which will entertain Mansfield Senior high Friday night in Massillon. Washington high is rated as Ohio's "hottest" schoolboy gridiron aggregation with five convincing 1949 victories. Barberton gave Massillon its toughest game, losing only 34 to 6.

Corum's Column

By BILL CORUM

NEW YORK — (INS) — Notre Dame beat Tulane so badly at South Bend on Saturday that it knocked two more letters out of Coach Henry Frnka's name. And Henry has a name that can stand only so much of that.

"Now I believe that that man Leahs delivered his own baby," a bemused Tulane player is understood to have remarked as he left the field at half time.

This column doesn't feel, however, that the Greenies from New Orleans should behave as if they felt too green about the fills because of the wrecking of their little red wagon at South Bend.

Our feeling is that it didn't happen because Frnka's team is so bad. Rather because Leahy's is so good. How good, heavens knows!

One of the shrewdest football men we've ever known, Chick Meeham, remarked to us once: "Score three quick touchdowns early in the game against any college team, and you can score about as many as you want thereafter."

And observation that we've seen borne out many, many times since. In the language of the prize ring, Larry Coutre and Co., hit Tulane while it still was in the dressing room. Another way that the ringworms have of putting it is, "he caught him cold."

In this case, the Irish seemingly caught the Green Wave frozen at low tide. We're not making a pass at saying that Tulane really belongs on the same field with Leahy's clocklike performers. "Who dat who do?"

Board Makes No Decision

CINCINNATI — (AP) — The Cleves-North Bend board of education heard testimony last night but announced no decision on charges of beating a student which have been filed against Verne Ullom, Taylor high school football coach and athletic director.

The charges against Ullom were made by Ronald Wilcox, a student at the high school. He claimed he was beaten by Ullom.

Young Wilcox and several other students were among the witnesses before the board. The board members held an executive session after the hearing and then adjourned without making any statement.

William (Biff) Glassford, new football coach at Nebraska, was captain of the Pitt team that beat Washington in the 1937 Rose Bowl.

Docusen Batters Way To 66th Win

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — Maxie Docusen, New Orleans lightweight, scored a technical knockout over Jackie Weber of Pawtucket, R. I., in the fourth round of their scheduled ten-round bout here last night.

Fans booed the decision of referee Eddie Wolfe to halt the main event match because of an eye cut suffered by Weber in the opening round.

It was the 66th straight bout without a defeat for Docusen.

Equal Pay Puts Steelers On Win Wagon This Year

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — The crying towls were hunt out early for the poor Pittsburgh Steelers but so far their opponents are shedding all the tears.

The Steelers this season weren't supposed to have anything but eleven players and a schedule.

But they have won three, lost one and are tied with the Philadelphia Eagles for the eastern division lead in the National football league.

Ray Byrne, Steeler statistician, explains their success thus:

"There are no Cinderellas on the club. We don't have a single five figure salary man. The players get pretty equal pay and that makes for good relations."

Grable Keeps Honor Roll Habit With 9th 600 Tally

Like old man river, Orlie Grable just keeps rolling along. And he's still rolling them down the middle, too.

Grable last night racked up his ninth honor roll score of the yet-infant bowling season—a 218-199-183—600 effort for the Richland Recreation team in the Richland A league. That's counting city league bowling only, for he has several others rolled in Sunday Traveling circuits. His nearest competitors, Henry Michaels and Gene Rudolph, have just four apiece.

It was the third straight day in the select circle for Grable. He had 600 Saturday in the Liederkranz league and 649 Sunday in a traveling circuit.

One new name was added to the list last night. Ray Kinton posted 237-182-191—610 for Williams Transfer, the top score of the night.

Grable's effort helped the Recreation team to three straight victories over Wonder Bread and put it in a tie for first place with McCarrick's with 15 victories and three defeats.

W. Huck of Ohio Sport Center almost made the honor roll with a 200-208-190—598 mark. Dale Cleckner, Kozak's Distributing, had 583; M. Rahal, Oak Park, 578; Ray Malaska, Richland, 560; Carl Heilman, Morgan's, 552; and J. McPhern, 544.

★

Dorothy McKinley, Goldsmith's Realty, and Donna Schuster, Farmer's Market, split scoring honors in the Women's Variety league with a pair of 476's. Dorothy had games of 176, 160 and 140 while Donna put together 142, 135 and 199.

Third was Bertha Young, Mitsch's Corner store, with 125-157-186—468. Others: Anna Romano, Ritz Nite club, 467; Martha Dye, Mitsch's, 457; Annette McFadden, Larimore Realty, 457, and Helen Wilhelm, Kafer's Flowers, 457.

Wilson Auto Sales, Kafer's and Goldsmith's each swept three games. Leland barbershop had the top term count of 2,136.

★

The red-hot battle for first place continued in the Club league as both Baku Grotto and Globe Steel captured three straight games to maintain their tie with records of 12 victories and six defeats. The University club which had been in the lead, fell into a tie for third, by dropping three to Lumbermens.

Individually, Cliff Heaton led the loop with 236-202-159—597 for Amima. Bob Lynch posted 574 for University and Danner Dalton got 570 for Lumbermens. Max Worthly, University, had 563. Others: B. Brinning, Amima, 553; Taylor, Lumbermens, 548; Jake Hoff, 536; and E. Hudson, Amima, 530.

★

Joe Hetler sr., led the Commercial C league with 210-172-201—583; John Waldman, Waldman Meats, had 217-151-203—571; Mac Southward, Mansfield Tire, 189-205-176—570; Virg Zimmerman, Pioneer Printing, 545; M. Day, Pioneer, 541; Gene Hetler, Urschel's, 537; Frank Keirns, Waldmans, 534; and John Rhoads, Stone's Grill, 533.

★

Harvey Hildebrand's 174-206-209—589 led the Gorman-Rupp league. Earl Turner was runner-up with 576, W. Cykajlo had 522, and B. Hopkins, 502. B. McGinty and A. Horvath had 468.

★

A 442 by Ann Toth paced Mansfield Tire women bowlers. Ann Shirkey had 420, and Mary McCumber 416 for the only other two scores over the 400 mark.

Syracuse university's drum majorette, Dorothy Grover, Freeport, L. I., freshman, is also a champion water skier.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

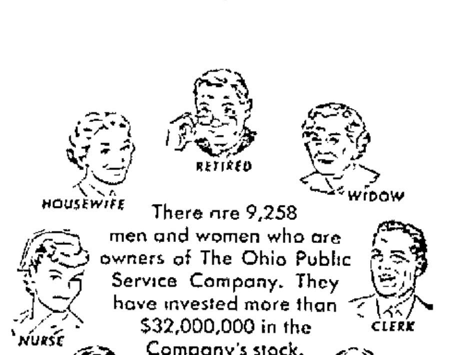
Whose Responsibility?
EVERY NEW HOME IS OUR RESPONSIBILITY
WHEN other folks build houses, WE have to build houses — power houses. An average home uses about 1950 kilowatt-hours of electricity a year. Some 5,000 new homes built in Ohio Public Service territory in 1948 make us responsible for 9,750,000 more kilowatt-hours annually.
That's a pretty big responsibility. It's another reason for our $62,000,000 six-year program of building power houses and other facilities to serve you.
Furnishing all the electricity every home wants, when it's wanted and where it's wanted is our job.
Where is the $62,000,000 coming from? Raising the money to build the plants and buy the equipment to serve you is another of our responsibilities. It's up to us to run the business so that our securities will be attractive to individual investors, banks, and insurance companies.



There are 9,258 men and women who are owners of The Ohio Public Service Company. They have invested more than $32,000,000 in the Company's stock.

Jazz Record Collecting Big Business

Dusty Attic Discs May Prove Golden

CHICAGO — (AP) — There may be a pot of gold hidden in the dusty phonograph records in your attic.

Jazz record collecting is big business and collectors' items bring good prices. Some authorities estimate the attics, basements and garages of the nation hold more valuable wax rarities than all the record stores combined.

George Hoefer, writer, for Down Beat magazine, jazz critic and longtime collector, lists two King Oliver records on the old Gennett label as among the most valuable items known. Either one, he estimates, would bring $1,000.

There is only one known copy of one of these 1923 discs—"Zulu's Ball" and "Workingman Blues", on Gennett 5275. The owner of this record keeps it locked in a safe deposit box. The other record, "If You Want My Heart," and "That Sweet Something Dear," on Gennett 5276, is known to exist, but never has turned up.

Any discussion of prices, Hoefer emphasizes, presupposes the record is in "mint" condition. Prices decline in geometric ratio to the amount of surface wear to which a waxing has been subjected. But even a "poor" condition copy of either of the fabulous Oliver records would be valuable.

If you have some old records on the QRS label by Earl Hines, they'll sell, Hoefer estimates, for $50 each. They were Hines' first recorded piano solos. The company which made them stayed in the recording business only a few months.

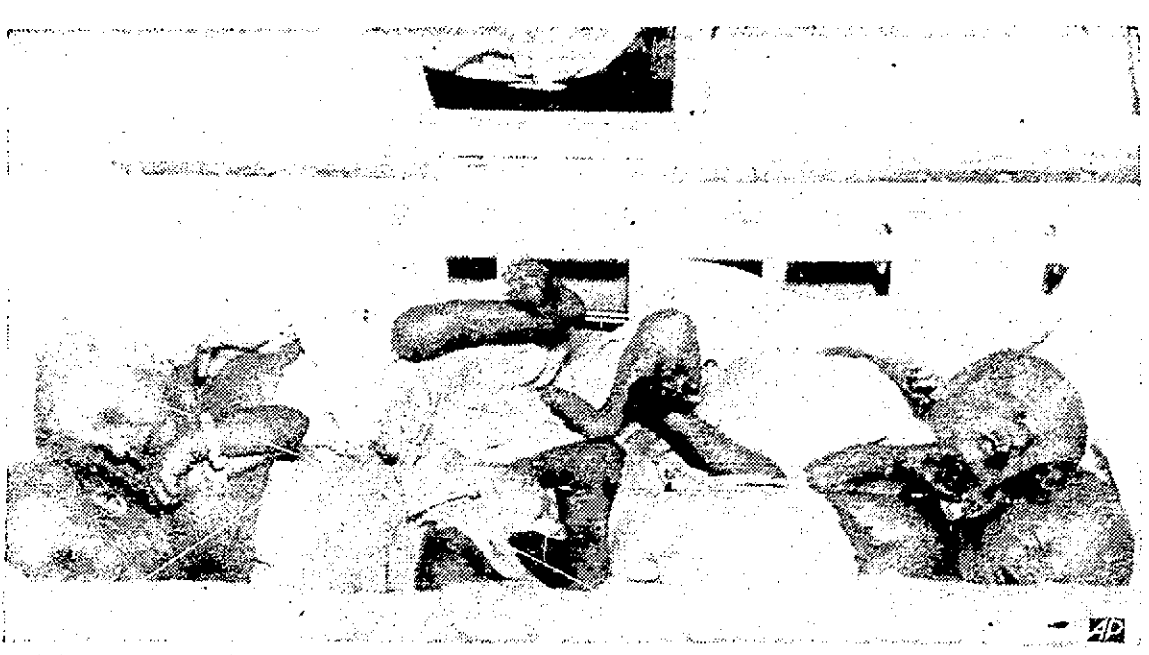
Other rarities include two records made by a small band under the direction of a Chicago butcher whose hobby was music. His name was Charley Pierce, and when Paramount records asked him to 'get some boys together" for a recording data, he showed up with a small band which included Muggsy Spanier and the late Frank Teschemacher on clarinet. The waxings from that session are worth $40 to $50 apiece.

The one-time prevalence of musical pseudonyms — is exemplifid in th rcording career of Cornetist Red Nichols.

Nichols, appears, with his band, as Red Nichols and His Five Pennies on the Brunswick label; the Arkansas Travelers on Harmony; the Red Heads on Perfect; Red and Miff's Stompers on Victor; the Six Hottentots on Cameo; the Charleston Chasers on Columbia, and the Golden Gate orchestra on Edison. Most of his old records will bring between $5 and $15 in mint—brand new — condition.

In general, Hoefer says, the best collector's items are to be found on white label Vocalion, Rd Okeh, Gennett, QRS, and Paramount.

One thing you're apt to find in your attic is a bunch of discs by the Originall Dixieland Jazz Band. Don't get excited. They're old, yes—and they're important to jazz lovers. But the sad fact is that they're as common as dandelions, and — Hoefer says are worth around 15 cents each.



MOTHER EXPECTED TWINS—GETS QUADS—When C. O. Hargreaves took his wife to the hospital, he was quite prepared to hear that his wife had given birth to twins, but he got the shock of his life when the announcement came that she had given birth to the four young ladies above in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario. Mrs. Hargreaves had been happy to hear that she could expect twins but says she is twice as happy with the quadruplets. The quads have not yet been named.

John Simpson Gym Will Be Re-Opened To Pupils Today

By DANNY SZIRIAK

The John Simpson gym will be ready for use today. New rules and regulations set up for the classes and games prohibit bringing food in the gym which would damage the newly-finished floor.

Students will have a nickel more for their lunch as the price of the activity fee has dropped from 15 cents to 10 cents. This price will still give students noon movies, sports, lockers and assemblies, towel service, and the Times.

The eighth graders are taking Mental Maturity tests, which are designed to show the IQ of the student. These annual tests are being taken in Room 109 and are conducted by Miss Hester Robinson, Simpson's guidance adviser.

The annual war is being waged against sling shots.

GAA members are praising the lowering of the GAA dues.

The Simpson Times is one of the 12 junior high papers in the country to be accepted as an associate member in Quill and Scroll. The Quill and Scroll is a senior high school organization for journalists.

AID DRIVE

Chuck Culp, Phyllis Penrose, Delores McElvain and Gay West helped distribute posters and pamphlets during Fire Prevention week.

Students will start getting grades next Tuesday. Grade cards will be issued to students Oct. 26.

William Wilmuth is the new second-floor custodian. He calls Simpson his alma mater.

The patrol boys are keeping an eye on all students who try to crash the light. If caught, the students must go to bicycle court.

On Oct. 19, the Bulldogs will meet Bellville in a junior high double header at Arlin field.

Oct. 26 is the big sports event — Appleseed Pioneers against Simpson Bulldogs at Arlin field, 8 p. m.

Bulldog pins are being sold by GAA members during the noon period in the halls. The sales force is in charge of Marlene Brauchler, president

Cheerleaders Rita Staples, Dorothy Jordon, Marcia Hines, Ronnie Cline, Winnie Maskey and Kathleen Russell rave worked out six new cheers.

Murderer Loses Appeal for Life

ATHENS — (AP) — The Fourth District Court of Appeals has turned down the appeal of Harry Z. Dodds, 21, convicted slayer of an Athens woman church worker. Dodds is a former inmate of Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield.

He is scheduled to die in Ohio penitentiary's electric chair Nov. 1. Dodds, formerly of New Straitsville and Carbondale, was convicted by a common pleas court jury of the Jan. 2, 1949 slaying of Miss Eleanor Gifford.

2 Escapers Charged In Robbery, Car Theft

2 Other Inmates Hunted

Jury To Act In January

Charges were filed today against two Mansfield reformatory escapers who confessed robbing a farm family near Shiloh Oct. 9.

At the same time, Acting Supt. George J. Allarding of the reformatory reported the escape of two more inmates, the eleventh and twelfth who have fled OSR in about two weeks.

Julius Faulkenberg, 27, and Frederick L. Shaver, 23, who confessed the farm home robbery, were charged today with breaking and entering an inhabited dwelling at night, robbery, and operating a car without the owner's consent.

Prosecutor Harold Lutz said the charges were filed before noon today. Shaver and Faulkenberg are held in the reformatory pending hearing of their cases by the grand jury in January.

The men escaped the OSR cannery Oct. 7 and were captured Saturday by R. C. Ohl, superintendent of the cannery, as they walked along a highway near Winchester, Va. Ohl was on a week-end trip through Virginia when he recognized the fugitives.

According to sheriff's deputies, the pair broke into the home of J. E. Hollenbaugh, 75, near Shiloh, took $14 and clothing from the house, tied Hollenbaugh, his wife, and daughter to chairs, and then fled in the Hollenbaugh car.

CONFESS ROBBERY

Shaver and Faulkenberg confessed the acts to Allarding yesterday at the reformatory. The Hollenbaugh auto has been recovered in Cumberland, Md.

Allarding said the inmates who fled today were Frank C. Thompson, 24, and Paul Eugene Anderson, 22. Both were reported missing from the horse barn at 6:30 a. m.

Thompson was received last March 4 from Franklin county to serve one to 15 years for burglary and Anderson was received March 2 from Stark county to serve one to three years for issuing checks with insufficient funds.

Supt. Allarding said both men would have appeared before the parole board in January.

So far, seven of the 12 escapers have been recaptured and returned.

Willard Man Killed

WILLARD—A Willard young man was killed and two others were injured early this morning when the car in which they were riding went out of control during a heavy fog and crashed north of Steuben.

The victim was William Ronald Lewis, 23, son of Mrs. Lois Lewis of 13 Washington street, Willard. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Municipal hospital at 3 a. m. He suffered a skull fracture.

State highway patrolmen from Bellevue identified the driver of the car as George Laslea, 27, who still is confined to the hospital with lacerations on the head. The other passenger was identified as Marion Trueshell, 23, who was released following treatment for lacerations of the hand.

Patrolmen said there were no witnesses to the crash in which the driver failed to negotiate a curve on the Peru Center road north of State Route 162. The car turned over with its three passengers inside, police said.

Spurns War Chest Plan

Green Declines To Join Lewis

WASHINGTON —(UP)— AFL President William Green has rejected John L. Lewis' proposal that nine AFL unions join with the United Mine Workers in setting up a $2,500,000 weekly strike fund for the CIO steelworkers.

In a letter to Lewis yesterday, Green dismissed the idea as "impossible and impracticable." He said, however, that individual AFL unions could contribute to the striking steelworkers — provided steelworkers' President Phillip Murray asked for help.

There was no immediate indication that any individual AFL union would voluntarily contribute to the proposed strike fund or that Murray had any intention of appealing for aid.

Lewis advanced his plan last week. He proposed that nine wealthy AFL unions and his own union each contribute $250,000 weekly to help the steelworkers in their current strike for noncontributory pensions.

In his reply, Green reiterated the traditional AFL policy that merger of all labor unions into one giant organization must precede any attempt to set up a common fund or to cooperate in he field of politics.

Chinese Reds Capture Amoy

HONG KONG — (INS) — Chinese communists took over the huge southern port island of Amoy today and were reported virtually overrunning what remains of nationalist-held South China.

Thus, almost all of China's 2,000-mile coastline is now in Red hands and communist forces may be ready for an invasion of Formosa, Chiang Kai-Shek's island fortress.

Amoy is in Fukien province, 350 miles north of Canton, the former nationalist capital now in communist hands.

Would Aid Handicapped

Mansfield Seeking 'Goodwill Industry'

To help provide jobs for the city's more than 130 physically handicapped persons, plans were under way today in Mansfield to bring a chapter of Goodwill Industries, Inc., here.

Rev. C. W. Stoneburner, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church, is serving as chairman of the committee which has arranged a meeting for Friday at 3 p. m. in the D. A. V. headquarters, 102½ North Walnut street, which will be open to the public.

Guest speaker at the meeting will be Dr. Frank M. Baker, director of the Cleveland Goodwill Industries, who will show moving pictures of the work accomplished in such a project, Rev. Stoneburner said.

The idea of promoting Goodwill Industries for Mansfield is an outgrowth of the local observance of national "Employ the Handicapped Week" a short time ago when only 5 physically-handicapped job applicants out of a total of 132 seeking work were placed in Mansfield industry.

Rev. Stoneburner said today that Goodwill Industries is a community project, sponsored by churches in many of the cities in which it operates. Among the employment possibilities which can be offered through the plan are the refinishing and re-upholstering of discarded furniture, the repairing, cleaning and pressing of clothing, all of which is re-sold with profits used to pay the handicapped workers for their labor.

In Cleveland, Rev. Stoneburner said, a blind woman has for a number of years successfully operated a store where second-hand books are sold, under the supervision of Goodwill Industries. The plan also would include teaching broom-making, rug-making and other crafts to blind and physically-handicapped persons, he said.

At the present time chapters of the Industries are being successfully operated in Akron, Ashtabula, Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Lorain, Toledo, Youngstown and Zanesville.

Working with Rev. Stoneburner on plans for the Friday meeting are Marshall R. Seybold, chairman of Mansfield's "Employ the Handicapped" committee; Mrs. Frances Frangella, Richland county Tuberculosis association case worker, and Norman Yarger, representative of the CIO labor council.

Fog Delays Mercy Flight

Planes Race Death To Save Young Child

CHICAGO — (UP) — A two-year-old boy, flown a third of the way around the world in a race against death, landed here today after fog forced his plane to spend three precious hours circling the city.

A police escort cleared streets with screaming sirens as an ambulance raced Bryan McAllister to Children's Memorial hospital for treatment of a kidney ailment complicated by bronchial pneumonia.

Bryan, accompanied by his missionary - mother, had left darkest Africa just 36 hours before so that doctors at the famed hospital here might attempt to save his life.

A dense fog enshrouded the city's airports when his Capital airlines plane arrived over the city at 5:01 a. m. CST (6:01 a. m. EST) and it was held in the air with 10 other craft until the morning sun burned the mist away.

When it landed at 7:48 a. m., the plane still had enough gas in its tanks for an hour's flight. The 10 other ships also landed safely.

The plane had attempted to land at O'Hare field, 25 miles northwest of its normal landing at Municipal field, but that also was "socked in."

The boy and his mother began their race at Johanesburg, Union of South Africa—8,278 miles from Chicago, Sunday night when the boy developed the pneumonia.

The Pan American World airways plane landed at New York airport about midnight. Engines warmed up, the Capital airlines Nighthawk taxied close to the giant trans-Atlantic craft to allow Bryan to be transferred with the least amount of pain, then sped to Chicago.

Bryan's parents are missionaries attached to the Evangelical Alliance mission in Swaziland, Union of South Africa. His father, Earl, remained in Africa.

Two Ships Collide, 21 Perish

British Ships Crash At Sea

ROSYTH, Scotland —(UP)—The heavily-laden British coastal steamer Maystone sank with 21 men missing early today after ramming the tug-towed British aircraft carrier Albion in gale-lashed seas.

Three of the 24 crew members aboard the Maystone were picked up at the scene. Coast guard lifeboats scoured the seas for seven hours after the collision without result.

The collision opened a deep gash in the stern of the Albion and the carrier, so new she was not yet in commission, was reported in danger of sinking.

WATER POURS IN

Some seven hours after the accident the Albion radioed that she was shipping water through the hole in her stern and might need further assistance.

Three tugs, which were towing the warship to Rosyth from the river Tyne in northeast England, began moving the damaged carrier into shallow water in St. Abbs bay in southern Scotland.

The Albion, rumored to be one of Britain's hush-hush atomic age carriers, was laid down in 1944 and launched only last May by Mrs. Clement Attlee, wife of the prime minister.

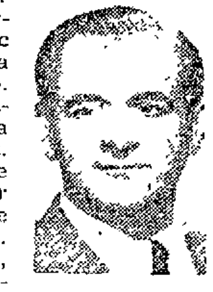
The Maystone, a 2,025-ton freighter loaded with 2,600 tons of coal from Scotland, was steaming for London with a crew of 24 aboard.

A brief message from the Albion indicated the Maystone sank immediately after colliding with the Albion on the port (left) side near the propellors.

Three men of the Maystone's crew were rescued by the tugs towing the Albion. No others were found at the scene and the tugs continued towing the damaged Albion to drydock at Rosyth.

Hit Parade Leader Dies

NEW YORK—(UP)—Mark Warnow, 47, orchestra leader on the radio program "Your Hit Parade" since 1937, died yesterday about one hour after he entered Polyclinic hospital for a checkup. Death was attributed to a heart ailment. He went to the hospital after complaining he felt exhausted.



Warnow, brother of Orchestra Leader Raymond Scott, directed numerous radio programs and was credited with aiding the careers of such singing stars as Kate Smith, Morton Downey, and Gertrude Niesen. He came to the United States from Manastrischt, Russia, in 1907

As a violinist, he started his career in amateur orchestras and Salvation Army bands.

He became first violinist with the Columbia Broadcasting system in 1929 and eventually became CBS staff conductor.

Red Trial Juror Gets Double Duty

NEW YORK — (AP) — For seven and one-half wearying months, author Russell Janney sat on the jury in the communist conspiracy trial.

Last Friday the trial ended. Janney went home, and found waiting for him—a summons to serve on another jury.

"Enough," said Janney, "is enough."

Strike End Nears

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. —(AP)—An end to the four-month-old, violent Bell Aircraft strike appeared at hand today. Striking CIO United Auto Workers were scheduled to vote tonight on tentative settlement terms.

Drive Off To Good Start

A spirit of optimism prevailed in the headquarters of Mansfield's 1949 Community Chest drive today as reports turned in by some of the 800 volunteer workers revealed that a total of $29,398 had been pledged by noon, the second day of the drive to raise $141,663.

This marks an increase of $8,825 over the amount which had been subscribed on the second day of last year's campaign.

That all committee chairmen and their workers are making every effort to reach their quota early was attested in the report that both the general and professional divisions of the drive have signed exactly 27.5 per cent of their quota already.

Mrs. C. H. Guy and Mrs. Ralph Z. Sorenson, co-chairmen of the general division, reported at noon today they had raised $3,210 of their $11,500 quota, while Charles Robertson, chairman of the professional division, turned in $1,907 on his goal of $6,925.

Another close race to reach quotas was evident in the Industrial "A" and "B" divisions whose figures were exactly $5 apart today. Robert M. Myers and Howard Richards of Industrial "A" reported a total of $8,870 raised while Industrial "B," with Marshall Seybold and Roy Waxler as chairmen, reported a total of $8,865.

James R. McConnell, chairman of this year's drive, urged all workers to stop at campaign headquarters in the A. B. Grafton company salesroom on Park avenue west, and check the progress of the various divisions, which are posted prominently on a large scoreboard as soon as reports come into the campaign headquarters.

Plane Crash Kills Five

3 Bodies Found, Two Infants Lost

PROVINCETOWN, Mass. —(AP)—A small chartered plane plunged into the sea off this town at the tip of Cape Cod yesterday taking the lives of three adults and possibly two babies.

The dead were identified as Pilot Daniel Lacey, 26, of Westwood, Mrs. Harold Keppel, about 30, wife of a New York Times photo-engraver, and Mrs. Edward S. Davis, about 40, of Provincetown.

Mrs. Keppel's two children, Paul, 2½, and Bruce, about one year, were listed as missing.

The bodies were recovered by the coast guard cutter Agushnet about four miles off Race Point.

The coast guard resumed search for the babies early today—but doubted they would be found alive.

Snow Storm Lashes West

(By the Associated Press)

A swirling white preview of winter banked five-foot snow drifts in Montana today and dipped temperatures in the Rocky mountains area as low as 12 degrees.

The windy snowfall was in contrast to the pleasant autumn weather which prevailed over most of the eastern half of the country.

North winds, recorded at 55-mile speed in top gusts, piled the snow which fell mainly on the eastern slopes of the northern Rockies and in the northwest plains area adjacent. The actual fall ranged from six inches at Cut Bank, Mont., and five inches in Yellowstone National park to approximately one inch in most of the area.

No emergency conditions were caused by the storm, authorities said. The early morning minimum of 12 degrees above zero was reported at Cut Bank. The mercury was under the freezing mark at most Montana points.

Air Chief Hits Back At Navy

Defends Air Force In Row

WASHINGTON — Air Secretary Symington, hitting back at Navy critics of the Air Force accused them today of peddling old, "false" tales and of letting possible enemies know "how this country would be defended."

Symington hinted, too, that the Navy is circulating a second anonymous document. He said one is in circulation that attempts to rip apart strategic bombing and is "far more dangerous than the first."

Symington was before the House armed services committee, leading off the air force rebuttal to navy complaints against defense policies.

In long hearings, the navy has complained that present policy puts too much stress on the air force B-36 big bomber and cuts down on the navy.

Admiral after admiral has taken the stand to belittle the possibilities of the bomber. Their general contention has been that the big plane could not get through an enemy's defenses and would accomplish little if it did.

STILL BEST BOMBER

Symington said the B-36 still is "the best long-range bomber known."

He added:

"The ability to fight from our own shores at the start of any war should not be looked on with contempt."

This is wind-up week for the sensational hearings which began Oct. 6. The navy has had its "day in court" and the air force, the army and Secretary of Defense Johnson, its targets, now get a chance to reply.

Barring some change in schedule, three army men are to follow the air force to the witness stand. They are Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, former chief of staff; Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff; and Gen. J. Lawton Collins, chief of staff who was recalled from an inspection trip to the Orient to appear.

Johnson's testimony, with which the hearings will probably conclude, will top the proceedings. A dramatic session is anticipated when the defense chief crosses swords with Rep. Vinson (D) Ga., the committee's chairman, who has criticized him.

'Last' Coal Talk Starts

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. — (INS) — John L. Lewis and soft coal operators took a final fling today at negotiating a new coal contract before the government moves into the five week old coal strike.

Industry representatives saw little change of an agreement that would send 375,000 striking miners back to the pits and openly forecast federal intervention in the deadlock.

One prominent coal man said the mine operators are firmly united against Lewis' demand for contract improvements which the union estimated would cost 30 to 35 cents a ton.

Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching told newsmen that the next government move in the coal situation "will depend on what takes place at the meeting at White Sulphur Springs."

State Mails Arguments on Colored Oleo to Third of Voters

Pros, Cons Of Question Presented

Decision Due In November Vote

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Arguments in the long fought over question of whether Ohio should permit the manufacture and sale of colored oleo now are being presented direct to the voters.

First of printed copies of the arguments — for and against colored oleo — were mailed out yesterday by Secretary of State Charles F. Sweeney. They went to approximately 1,000,000 registered voters in the state. The mailing list was made up of every third registered voter and every rural box holder.

The proposed law to permit colored oleo will be voted on at the November election.

Two separate committees prepared the pamphlets. Arguments against colored oleo were drawn up by D. R. Stanfield of Westerville, James W. Huffman of Columbus and State Grange Master Joseph W. Fichter of Oxford.

The committee which drew up the arguments in favor of the law was made up of Dorothy Clinger, Josephine Dumbaugh and Beatrice H. Korell, all of Columbus.

Opponents of colored oleo declared passage of the law automatically would boost oleo prices in Ohio by the amount of the 10 cents a pound federal tax on yellow margerine.

Opponents also contented there was danger of fraud in packaging and advertising and that there was a "monopoly question" in that "only four big companies with less than 700 workers produce all Ohio's margerine."

Proponents of the law called it "unfair and unAmerican to penalize one wholesome and nutritious product of Ohio farms (margerine) for the benefit of another product of Ohio farms (butter)."

Their arguments said the food value of margerine and butter are the same but that margerine costs only about one-half as much.

"Many working people simply cannot afford butter," they said. "Why should their busy wives have to color margerine themselves."

The proponents also brought up the monopoly question, asserting Ohio law now gives butter a monopoly on the yellow color.

of kidnaping and robbing a cab driver in Marion and forcing him to drive to Portsmouth Aug. 27, was to be returned to Marion today from the Lima state hospital where he was adjudged legally sane.

PLEADED INSANITY

Thompson had entered a plea of insanity when he faced the charges and was sent to the Lima hospital for 30 days' observation. Thompson staged the kidnaping and robbery three days after he was paroled from the OSR where he served a term for fraud.

The cab driver, Louis Eugene Louck, said Thompson took $30 from him after he forced him, at gunpoint, to drive through Mansfield, Columbus and finally to Portsmouth.

Thompson was received at the OSR on March 2, 1948 from Marion county and sentenced to one to three years for issuing checks with insufficient funds.

Thousands Plan Holy Year Trip

Pilgrims Will Visit Rome

ROME — (P) — More than two months before the opening of Holy Year, nearly three quarters of a million pilgrims already have pledged to come to Rome.

In addition to the regular pilgrimages from all part of Italy, including some 350,000 pilgrims, France has organized 107 different groups with a total of 122,500 pilgrims.

Austria already has enrolled 24,000 pilgrims; Belgium, 21,400, Switzerland 14,500, Spain 9,000, Holland 7,700, Great Britain 5,782.

No figures are yet available for the United States and other American republics, which — as they have already announced — will participate in holy year with several hundreds of thousands of pilgrims.

One of the principal concerns of the central committee for Holy Year, is to ensure proper lodgings for the imposing number of visitors.

A spokesman for the holy year central committee said recently that transportation has never been so easy as now. There will be a sufficient number of ships to carry to Rome anyone who wants to come, he said.

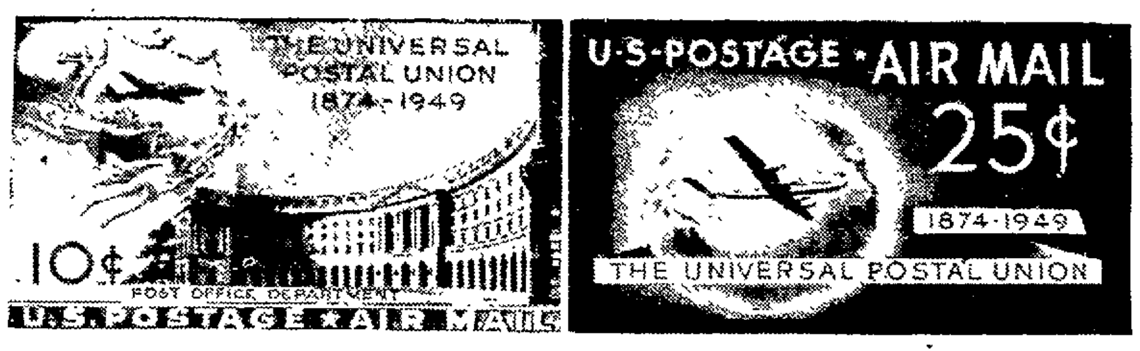
More than 22,000 beds will be at the disposal of pilgrims Calculating that each pilgrim will stay in Rome three days, more than two and one half million pilgrims could be cared for with beds already available.

These 22,000 beds are in addition to Rome's normal tourist facilities in hotels and boarding houses.

Many, it is expected, will come to Rome for a shorter period, and will not require bedding arrangements. For these and for lower income pilgrims the holy year central committee will provide catering services.

Meals will be served at cheap rates by special popular restaurants near St. Peter's basilica in new buildings now under construction.

To ensure that no salesmen of religious objects will disturb the pilgrims near St. Peter's, the holy year committee has ordered the pontifical gendarmes to chase all peddlers from the Basilica's famous square.



COMMEMORATIVE STAMPS — Seventy-fifth anniversary of the Universal Postal Union will be commemorated by issue of two new air mail stamps Ten-cent stamp (left) has Washington Post Office department building for central design, while new 25-center will show four-motor plane in flight.

Re-Named To Post

William C Mead, ex-Mansfield Board of Education member, Boy Scout Council executive and retired business man, was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the Ohio Society for Crippled Children yesterday in Columbus

Mead, who resides at 57 Wolfe avenue, was renamed to his fourth consecutive term in the office.

Paul V Brown, superintendent of Tiffin schools, was elected president of the society Other officers chosen were: James A Hewitt of Elyria, first vice president; Charles J Starkey, Ashtabula attorney, second vice president.

Delegates to the society's 30th annual convention, before adjourning, heard a New York Times editorial writer say that the disabled civilian has been virtually forgotten in comparison to veterans in sharing America's war-born interest in rehabilitation of the physically handicapped.

Eugene J Taylor who also is a staff member of the Institute of Rehabilitation and Physical Medicine at New York University-Bellevue Medical center, said that while excellent facilities exist for the disabled veteran, the civilian still needs great help in getting " from the bed to the job "

Japanese Polite To Americans But Hope They'll Leave Soon

By CLARK LEE

TOKYO — (INS) — Just as the Japanese once attributed their successes and victories to the divine power of their Emperor, it is now fashionable to give General Douglas MacArthur an assist for every noteworthy achievement

Thus swimmer Furuhashi, the "Flying Fish from Fujiyama," stated recently that his world record performances at Los Angeles were due not to a secret stroke but to the "inspiration of General MacArthur" and of occupation authorities.

And Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida told visitors that Japan's "deepest gratitude was due to Mr. MacArthur" for setting the country on the road to recovery. Joshida had the wrong title, but the intent of his twice repeated statement was clear.

Such flattery of the occupation commander—and no doubt much of it is sincere—is part of an apparent national policy to treat the Americans politely to cooperate fully, to avoid any opposition.

The purpose of his policy, obviously, is to get the American forces out of Japan at the earliest possible date. There is no conflict here for this is also the aim of occupation policy as demonstrated by the increasing relaxation of controls and the rapid restoration of political and economic power of the Japanese government itself.

Seeing the friendly relations between Americans and Japanese today, it is difficult to remember that we were so recently bitter enemies.

Of course, there are occasional minor displays of resentment university students spat at the car of an American correspondent's wife: a stone was tossed at the car of another correspondent We seemed to notice that some Japanese were playing a game of trying to force an American car—recognizable by its loud horn—to come to a stop before moving out of its way But in contacts with Japanese we noted no surliness, none of the scarcely-concealed hatred of the sly annoyances so apparent on a recent trip to Germany

Japan's numerous communists are permitted to express quite openly their opposition to the democratic aims to the occupation.

But there is no indication that communist views are gaining new adherents On the contrary, General MacArthur believes the communists are rapidly losing strength and would get only a million votes in a national election today, as compared with over 3,000,000 in the last general election. In support of this view, occupation headquarters points out that communists won only two of more than 400 seats on a nationwide farm council in recent voting

Even former prisoners of the Soviets who underwent more than two years of communist indoctrination are reported by American officials to be turning away from that ideology. A check made of 4,000 returned prisoners showed that only 30 remained party members a year after their release from Siberian camps.

One of the occupation reforms that made a deep impression on these men was that nearly 508,000 former tenant farmers now owned their own land, thus constituting a conservative, self-employing class which — again in headquarters opinion — would never succumb to communistic propaganda.

STOPS LAXATIVES—FEELS BETTER!

"Have been eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN 3 years and it's wonderful! Now I don't ever need a laxative, feel so much better. I've told plenty of others too!" Mrs. Jerry Russell, Route 8, Maryville, Tenn. Many other grateful ALL-BRAN users write the same. You may be helped, too, if constipated due to lack of bulk in the diet; start eating an ounce of crisp, toasty ALL-BRAN daily, drink plenty of water. If not satisfied after 10 days, send empty box to Kellogg's, Battle Creek, Mich. DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK! —Adv

Do We Have to Die?

Thirty-eight years ago in forbidden Tibet, behind the highest mountains in the world, a young Englishman named Edwin J. Dingle found the answer to this question. A great mystic opened his eyes. A great change came over him. He realized the strange power that knowledge gives.

That Power, he says, can transform the life of anyone Questions, whatever they are, can be answered. The problems of health, death, poverty and wrong, can be solved

In his own case, he was brought back to splendid health He acquired wealth too, as well as world-wide professional recognition. Thirty-eight years ago, he was sick as a man could be and live. Once his coffin was bought. Years of almost continuous tropical fevers, broken bones, near blindness, privation and danger had made a human wreck of him, physically and mentally.

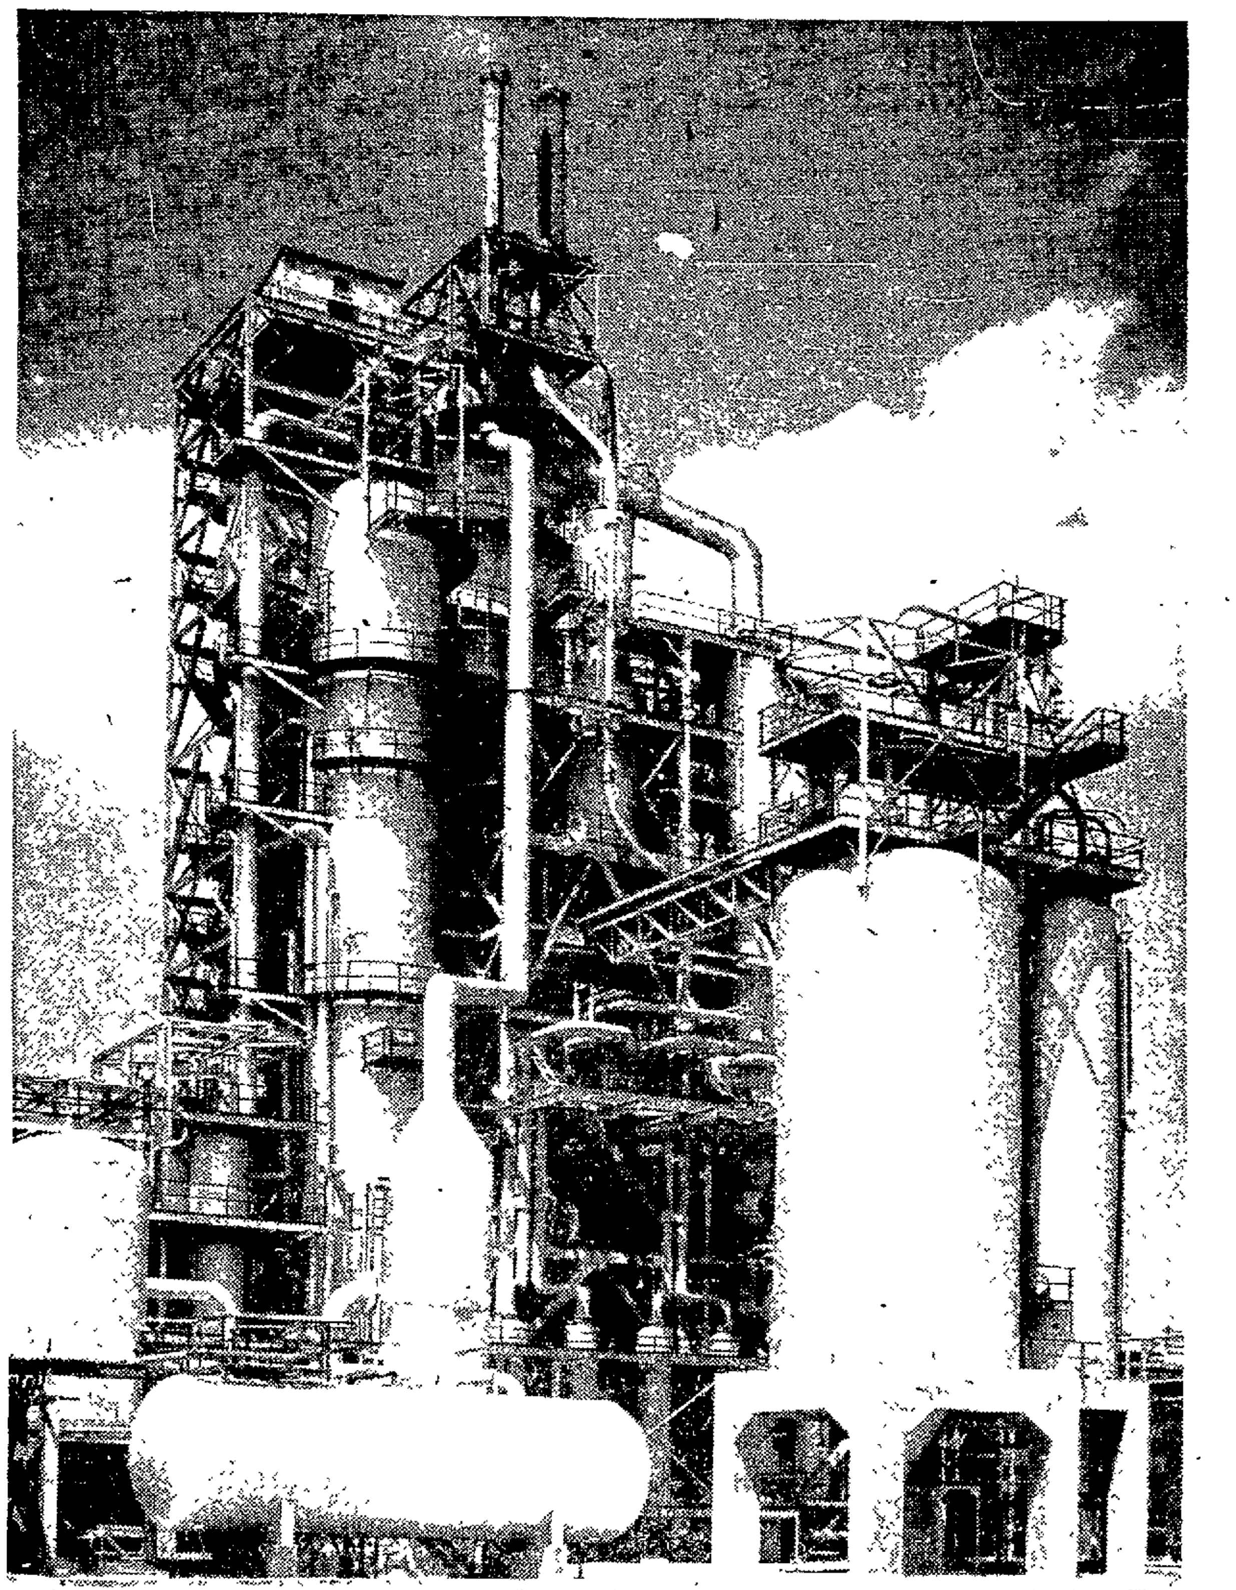
He was about to be sent back to England to die, when a strange message came "They are waiting for you in Tibet." He wants to tell the whole world what he learned there, under the guidance of the greatest mystic he ever encountered during his 21 years in the Far East. He wants everyone to experience the greater health and the Power which there came to him.

Within ten years, he was able to retire to this country with a fortune. He had been honored by fellowships in the world's leading geographical societies, for his work as a geographer. And today, 38 years later, he is still so athletic, capable of so much work, so young in appearance, it is hard to believe he has lived so long.

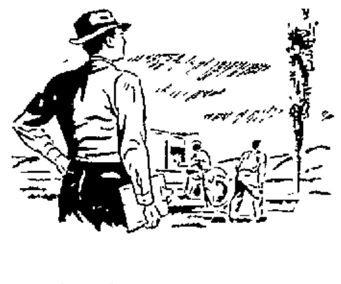
As a first step in their progress toward the Power that Knowledge gives, Mr. Dingle wants to send to readers of this paper a 9,000-word treatise He says the time is here for it to be released to the Western World, and offers to send it, free of cost or obligation, to sincere readers of this notice. For your free copy, address The Institute of Mentalphysics, 213 South Hobart Blvd Dept. L-259, Los Angeles 4 Calif Readers are urged to write promptly as only a limited number of the free books have been printed.—Adv.

New multi-million dollar "Cat Cracker." This new catalytic cracking unit is the newest addition to Ohio Oil's great refinery at Robinson, Illinois. The most modern and efficient ever built, it gets more gasoline power out of every barrel of crude than was ever before thought possible . . . brings motorists a kind of performance never before possible.

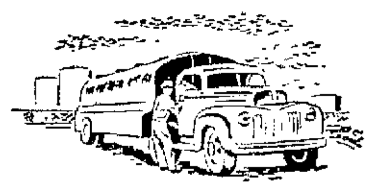
And it's only part of Ohio Oil's continuing expansion and modernization program. It's typical of the progress you expect in the oil industry where 34,000 individual oil companies are in tireless and healthy American business competition . . . to serve you better and better.



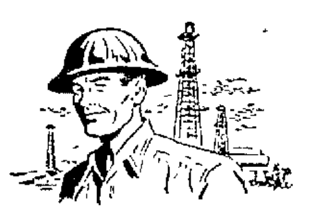
Who made it possible?



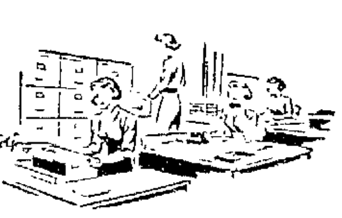
Our geologists and exploration crews who use the most advanced scientific methods in a never-ending search for the oil that powers America's progress.



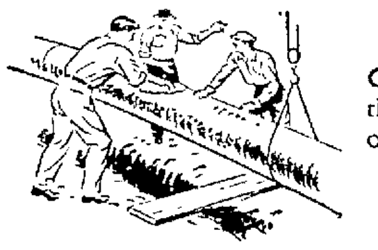
Our transport men who get the gasoline and other petroleum products to the thousands of modern service stations displaying the famous Marathon Runner sign.



Our drilling and production men who probe thousands of feet into the earth to bring in new wells. They're playing an important part in providing America with an ample supply of crude oil.



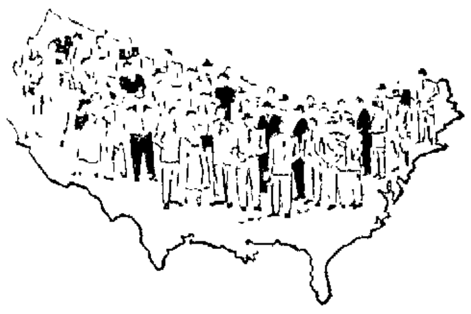
Our thousands of office workers, administrative and sales personnel who play a vital role in the production, transportation, refining and marketing of the company's petroleum products.



Our pipeline men who keep crude oil moving through the company's more than 4,000 miles of pipeline.

Our courteous dealers, jobbers and farm delivery men . . . independent businessmen to whom millions of Midwest motorists look for the finest petroleum products to give their cars, trucks, and tractors top performance.

Our refinery engineers, chemists and operators . . . without whose knowledge and skill this complex miracle of petroleum processing could never have been accomplished.



Our more than 33,000 company owners (stockholders) who have put their dollars to work in typical American fashion. In the past 3 years, alone, more than $72,000,000 have been put into exploration and drilling; improving pipeline, refining and marketing facilities.

Our customers . . . motorists like yourself . . . who exercise their freedom of choice in a country that has proved that more and better things for more people come from free competitive enterprise.

WHO MADE IT POSSIBLE? THEY ALL DID. YOU DID. SO WE SALUTE THEM . . . AND YOU . . . as America celebrates the 90th year of oil progress

Friendly House Enters New Era

THE SPIRIT of Mansfield at its best is seen in such accomplishments as that of successfully carrying through the project of providing new and more adequate quarters in which to conduct the work of Friendly House, that long ago had outgrown the facilities available in the building at 280 North Main street, which was purchased in 1913 and enlarged three years later by addition of a gymnasium, kindergarten room and club rooms.

Now a fine new structure on North Mulberry street is in readiness for dedication and occupancy—and the many thousands of Mansfielders who shared in meeting the cost of this achievement can look with pride on what has been done, as well as to enjoy a feeling of satisfaction in contemplating the fine opportunities for service that lie ahead for those who direct the course of Friendly House in its varied constructive activities.

It is fitting that the site of the new Friendly House should be a gift from Carl Sternbaum, in memory of a son who met death in the second World War, and it is noteworthy that much of the needed equipment comes as contributions from groups or individuals, thus evidencing widespread interest in this phase of community betterment.

Following the formal dedication of the new Friendly House, scheduled for tomorrow evening, there will be "open house" afternoons and evenings Thursday through Sunday, and it is anticipated that many Mansfield and vicinity residents will take this opportunity to acquaint themselves with the fine way in which a long-time dream has been carried to fulfillment.

For the record, it may be noted that the settlement movement in Mansfield was first started as a "People's Mission" in 1894, with organization of the Friendly House association coming along in 1912. Early financing was entirely by contributions from interested individuals and groups until 1920 when Friendly House became a participant in the Community Chest budget—which, by the way, is being replenished this week.

What Fate For the Homeless?

THE PROBLEM of displaced persons still plagues the government and others trying to untangle the post-war muddle of affairs in Europe. The proposal for liberalization of special immigration regulations applying to displaced persons was one of the matters which contributed to the long delay by Congress in reaching the point of adjournment. It was a bitterly argued proposal, one which the Senate at least was loath to face.

If the problem which remains was difficult in Congress, it is far more so in Europe. In the past summer it was estimated that half a million displaced persons still were under the care of the International Relief Organization, which is supposed to finish its work by next June. The best hoped for by even the most optimistic officials was that by that time there would be only about 160,000 persons remaining. These would be the persons whom no nation wants. What is to become of them?

These homeless ones are not victims of war alone, but of the whole series of inhuman national passions which has swept across Europe in recent decades. These have been born of the philosophies of little men obsessed with great ambitions, and with the idea that a state is of more importance than its own or any other people.

Yes, 'It's a Small World'

IMAGINE the surprise of those two reformatory escapees, jogging along a highway in Virginia, to suddenly find themselves face to face with a reformatory official!

Now they are back in custody—and much worse off than they would have been had they stayed put at the institution instead of walking away when no one was looking.

Regularity with which reformatory escapees are recaptured—usually after no more than short freedom—would seem to discourage the foolish practice of ducking out from the institution farm, which can scarcely be dignified by being called an "escape."

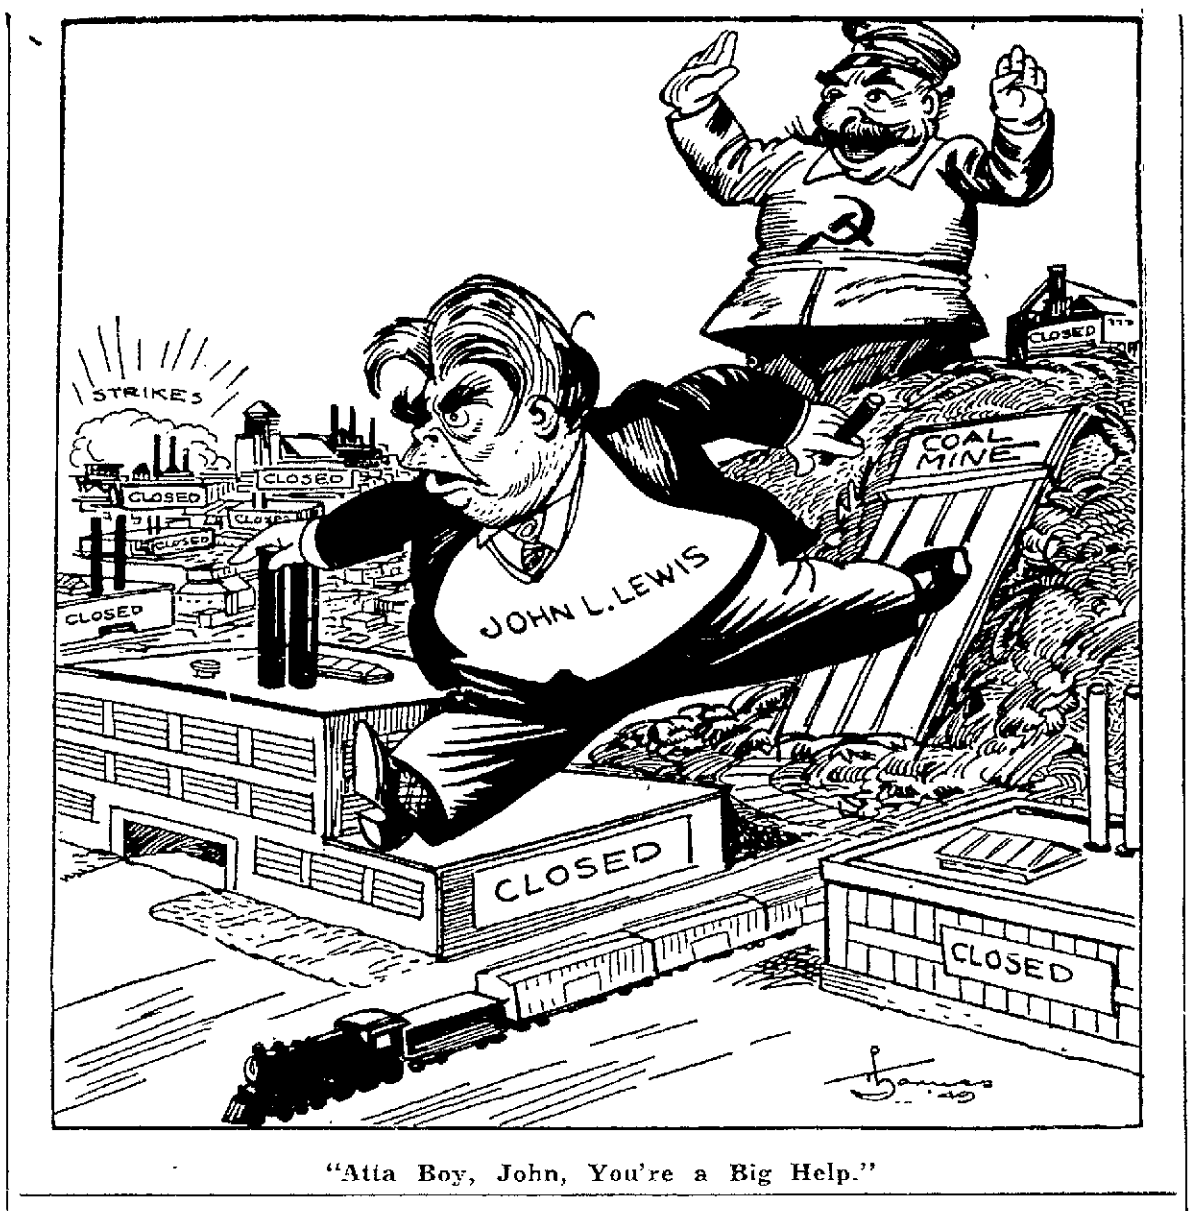
It would also be well to pass along among reformatory inmates the warning by Prosecuting Attorney Harold Lutz that escapees who commit crimes in Richland county will face additional punishment under state law.

Harry Wade recalls: "On the railway journeys of our childhood it wasn't called 'matched luggage' even when the shoeboxes carrying the lunch were alike."

Between the labor government and American Mrs. Simpson the British nobility can hardly call its soul its own any longer.

It's not the big bites at meals but the little nibbles in between meatime that adds heft to the hips.

Richland county cows are smart. Not one has been caught in a silo to date.



"Atta Boy, John, You're a Big Help."

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Defense Plans Should Be Reconsidered

CHAIRMAN Carl Vinson of the House armed services committee has rendered the country a great service on two counts. He has given the able and experienced heads of the Navy an opportunity in true American fashion to present the Navy case to the bar of public opinion. And through this presentation he has made it possible to tear away all of the mystery and some of the public fear of atomic warfare.

The American people are proud of the Navy. Over the generations it has literally been our major armed service. Its officers have held a high place in national life—in public affection and respect and in wise counsel to our government.

Because of the enormous growth of the Army in the recent war, the rise of air power, the fact that the President is in his sympathies an Army man and because of the circumstances of unification in which two services outvote the other, the leaders of the Navy have been subordinated and prevented from making their valued contribution to public discussion of defense plans.

This is unfortunate, because men like Nimitz, King Halsey, Spurance, Denfield and many others are not only national heroes, but by the proof of achievement great commanders. Now they have had a hearing and, as the smoke clears, a lot of things are apparent that were not seen before.

* * *

Revision Necessary.

IN THE light of their expert judgment, the present defense setup is not real and effective unification. The whole concept must be revised and the top personnel should be recast.

Clearly, the present secretary of the navy, because of his lack of force and experience, is unable to play an effective part in top management. Whether Secretary Johnson will be able to demonstrate the capacity to win public confidence remains to be seen.

Also in the light of the argument of the Navy men, the whole present concept of armed warfare must be revised. Faith in strategic bombing has been irreparably shaken. As Halsey pointed out, the striking forces of an enemy cannot be halted by civilian destruction in the homeland, except in a war of attrition which might well destroy all civilization.

Moreover, Admiral Ofstie, in a most persuasive statement, pointed out the moral values involved, the dangers to ourselves in delusions of quick victory and the effect of such delusions on diplomatic dealings with other countries.

Finally, the atomic weapon has been whittled down to life size. It is a weapon and a dreadful one, but it cannot win a war with Russia. It would be a factor and possibly a decisive factor, but many other weapons and forces would be involved.

That can well be a corrective for the blind fear that the atomic bomb has introduced into public thinking these past few years.

Conditions Quite Different From 1929

BY SIGRID ARNE

WASHINGTON — Just how thick is the crust of our comparative prosperity right now? Is there a depression right below the surface?

The National Planning Association (NPA) says the crust is pretty thick compared to 1929 and that any depression need by no more than a temporary lull.

NPA is a non-profit, non-political [illegible] here that makes studies of national problems through committees of business men, labor and farm leaders.

It has just done a study that compares 1929 and 1949 business soundness of the country.

Here are the high spots:

In 1929 private debt ($161.9 billion) was nearly twice what the nation was earning that year. National income then was $87.4 billion. Now private debt is $172.2 billion, only [illegible] per cent of the $225 billion we are earning this year.

In 1929 speculation was running riot and brokers had loans out that totaled $8.5 billion. Now brokers' loans are less than half a billion.

In 1929 bank loans were $43 billion, half as much as what we earned that year, and those loans represented 78 per cent of the money in circulation. Now bank loans are $47 billion, only a fifth of what we are earning this year and only 28 per cent of the money in circulation.

In 1929 there were 659 bank failures and many more followed between 1930 and 1933. Only five banks have closed in the past five years and bank depositors are insured by the government for any losses up to $5,000.

In 1929 the money we had saved, cash and bank deposits, totalled $55 billion, and there were no government savings bonds. Now you and I are holding down bank deposits of $165 billion and hold government savings bonds worth $46 billion.

In other words, NPA says, if business fell off now and great numbers of people suddenly lost their jobs there should be less actual distress and hunger than in 1929 and 1930.

Even if banks and brokers felt they had to call in their loans, and people had to pay up, fewer people would be strapped, and there would be more money on hand to keep business running.

More people would still have savings to pay the rent and the grocery bill.

But NPA thinks government and financial men have learned since 1929 that it is perhaps better to increase the public's buying power when a depression threatens, than it is to let prices drop in the hunt for new buyers.

Government has one weapon to do this, NPA reminds. It lies in the Federal Reserve System, which is a little academic for the ordinary Joe, but which can affect his well-being quite quickly. In the face of a continuing slump in business it can tell banks that they can reduce their reserves. Immediately, the banks can use the released money to extend loans and credit and again new money flows out into business channels.

NPA thinks it would be unnecessary to let a business slump blow into another full-scale 1929.

The Nation Today

Backing Henry Kaiser

BY CHARLES MOLONY

WASHINGTON — The government has a stake of approximately $186,500,000 in Henry J. Kaiser's industrial empire.

The government's credit allowances reached that peak—equivalent to $1.25 for every man, woman and child in the population when the 67-year-old builder-salesman's auto enterprise got a $34,400,000 loan last week to back its 1950 production plans, which include a new low-price car.

Before the war Kaiser handled millions of dollars in government contracts, sharing notably in work on the great dams in the west: Boulder, Bonneville, Grand Coulee, Shasta.

Entirely privately financed in those days, the onetime dry goods store cash-boy didn't owe the dovernment a dime. Neither did he have the mony-making assets that his present debt to the government represents.

During the war, when Kaiser's government contracts soared into the billions, he borrowed $52,780,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC)—maker of the new auto loan—to build, expand and operate plants.

Payments on principal along with millions in interest at four per cent have reduced the balance due on those wartime borrowings to $96,000,000 all owed on the big Fontana steel mill outside Los Angeles.

* * *

Speaking In Millions.

KAISER completely paid off—ahead of time, too—$28,475,000 borrowed to build the Permanente Corp magnesium plants out west and $1,000,000 for aircraft production at a Bristol, Pa. plant.

Meanwhile, he has run up new credits in the postwar purchase of wartime built plants from the War Assets Administration(WAA).

WAA records show Kaiser still owes $56,000,000 after payment of $3,773,000 principal and more millions in four per cent interest on these acquisitions.

That doesn't take into account some Kaiser enterprise leases of plants (a $17,428,000-cost steel mill at Cleveland) and machinery and equipment (mostly at the former bomber plant at Willow Run.)

The WAA says about $90,000 is due in rent on the leased property, but it's just current rent with no arrears.

It doesn't take into account either some unsettled accounts between Kaiser and the Maritime Commission arising from advance of money, equipment and materials on both sides in Kaiser's wartime shipbuilding.

Maritime Commission men say there's no telling just how these accounts will wind up when all the details are settled, since they involve some claims by Kaiser on the commission as well as commission claims on Kaiser. They guess less than $1,000,000 is involved, either way.

Critics of Kaiser and/or the Roosevelt and Truman administrations have charged there has been favoritism in the aid given Kaiser. Kaiser has on occasion claimed discrimination against him.

He said, for instance, that RFC let U. S. Steel buy a steel plant at Geneva, Utah, for 20 per cent of its wartime constuction cost while holding him to 100 cents on the dollar of wartime cost in its loan on his Fontana steel plant.

Government agencies which have given him credit simply say he's lived up to the letter of his promises to pay and has proved himself an A-1 risk. They deny any partiality.

As Others See It

Merely a Suggestion.

Don't discipline the child; let him insult old people and those who can't fight back, and he may grow up to make millions as a radio quizmaster.—Kansas City Star.

What Some Other People Are Saying

Secretary of Commerce SAWYER: "Until about two weeks ago during practically the entire summer there was a definite upward trend in business and employment. That trend has been changed by strikes and threats of strikes."

JOHN ROSS, deputy U. S. representative on the United Nations Security Council: "The Soviet Union has a very important forum (in the U. N.) for expressing their ideas . . . Think that is too important for them to walk out of the United Nations."

Former Secretary of State JAMES F. BYRNES: "An important question is whether one as governor could secure the cooperation of other governors in arousing the people of the nation to hold the line against further encroachments on the rights of the states."

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Johnson Urges Action On Arms Money

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Shooting from the hip, Secretary of Defense Johnson brought U. S. foreign policy up to date the other day for the men who must vote the money to finance it.

Johnson was the star witness at a closed-door session of the Senate appropriations committee. The state department was also represented by Undersecretary of State James Webb, but he faltered and fumbled under the senators' withering cross-examination. With two exceptions, however, Johnson snapped back the answers without hesitation. These two involved Yugoslavia.

The secretary of defense readily admitted that Yugoslavia was the most explosive spot on the globe, and warned:

"Anything can happen there any day, any moment."

But he wouldn't say whether the United States is committed to rush arms to Tito, or what the U. S. plans to do in case of a clash. Those were the only questions the secretary of defense ducked.

Johnson was more optimistic about Greece, predicted that the United States will be able to walk out and leave Greece standing on her own two feet in eight to 12 months.

Only two pockets of communist guerrillas are left, he said. All that remains for the Greek government is to wipe out these pockets and guard the borders against communist outsiders.

Senator Burnet Maybank, South Carolina Democrat, asked the under-secretary of state about Spain.

"Are our relations with Spain improving?" he inquired.

"Very definitely," replied Undersecretary of State Webb.

"Is that just a Columbus day declaration, or are relations actually improving?" broke in Senator Styles Bridges, New Hampshire Republican.

"Our relations with Spain are actually improving," reiterated Webb.

* * *

Undersecretary Forgets.

THE NEXT hot subject brought up was China. Groping a bit for words, Webb explained that Secretary of State Acheson had assigned three groups to study China, then had invited 20 prominent citizens last week to consult on the question.

Bridges promptly asked for the names of the 20 citizens, but Webb could think of only two—former Secretary of State George Marshall and former Republican presidential candidate Harold Stassen. Bridges then demanded that the committee be furnished the other eighteen.

Another consistent critic of our China policy, Senator Knowland, California Republican, asked about the $75,000,000 President Truman had asked as a blank check to aid China.

"Will this $75,000,000 be used if it is authorized?" asked Knowland. Webb hesitated, but Johnson spoke up bluntly.

"As far as the defense department is concerned," he declared, "It wouldn't be asked for unless we intended to use it."

* * *

For Atlantic Pact.

SENATORS Ken Wheery of Nebraska and Homer Ferguson of Michigan, also Republicans, asked about the defense plans of the Atlantic Pact nations. They pointed out that, under the law, arms for Europe could not be sent until an integrated plan was worked out.

"How," asked Ferguson, "can you ask for appropriations for arms implementation if no defense plan has been submitted?"

Johnson replied that the Atlantic Pact nations have been working on a defense plan since October 5. Although no formal plan has been agreed upon, the tentative plan is in such shape that defense officials felt they could go ahead.

A comprehensive strategy would be ready by January, but the President wanted the appropriations also to be available so he could act without delay, Johnson added.

The senators went away from the meeting impressed, if not always satisfied, with Johnson's answers. They liked the secretary of defense's "refreshing frankness."

DECISION by Prime Minister Atlee not to hold an election this year hasn't changed anything here. . . . O'Dwyer is still running for mayor and husband.

His friendship with Miss Simpson surprised many who had not previously suspected that he was a "model" mayor.

But he is ambitious, and like the Duke of Windsor and the Marquess of Milford Haven . . . he wanted to marry a Simpson, too.

Unlike British nobility he doesn't have to get permission of the President to take this important step. Unlike the President he doesn't have to get permission of the Senate either to take an important step.

Assignment: America

Oh, To Be a Pigeon!

By INEZ ROBB

VENICE — My life has been marked by various and sundry ambitions. But this is the first time I have ever wanted to be a pigeon.

At the moment I can envision no fate so satisfactory as to be a pigeon and live forever in St. Mark's Square in Venice. These lucky birds toil not, neither do they spin, and they live in a square of such beauty that men have swooned at sight of it.

These pigeons, together with the city's gondoliers, are Venice's two prime tourist attractions, outranking even the Byzantine bulk of St. Mark's Cathedral and the grandeur of the Doge's Palace (which a generation of G. I.'s called "the dog house" to the despair of Venetians).

People come from every corner of the globe to feed the pigeons of St. Mark's. These birds have incredible capacity, eating from dawn till dark of the yellow corn for sale in paper cornucopias to tourists like myself.

The city fathers, knowing a good tourist attraction when they see one, also feed the pigeons twice daily, at 9 a. m. and 2 p. m., when a bell tolls to signify that soup's on.

Five minutes before both these hours, clouds of pigeons gather over the square. Pigeons from all parts of the city come to partake of the municipal bounty. But the minute this is gone, the old guard pigeons who have lived in St. Mark's Square for generations chase the squatter pigeons away with fierce attacks. Not for these upstarts the bounteous corn scattered by tourists!

* * *

In Pigeon English.

A DISTINGUISHED old pigeon named Antonio, descendant of one of St. Mark's oldest families, told me today over a bowl of cracked corn that, despite the looks of things, the pigeons of St. Mark's lead a strenuous life.

"All this corn and no meat!" said Antonio crossly as he looked at the thousands of tourists in the square, all scattering corn and all cooing to the pigeons.

"And no bicarbonate of soda, either!" Antonio complained. "Naturally, the city expects us to eat all the corn these tourists scatter. And I can tell you that at the height of the tourist season, we have to eat our heads off and this is no easy matter."

Antonio said that a good many of S. Mark's pigeons develop gout at an early age, liver complaint is common and duodenal ulcers are not unknown.

Then there is the eternal fight to keep other pigeons from muscling in on the racket at St. Mark's Square.

The pigeons must even roost on St. Mark's and the Doge's Palace at night, he said, to protect their territory from pigeons looking for lebensraum.

The daily battles, shortly after 9 a. m. and 2 p. m. to drive out the D.P.'s. (displaced pigeons), take a lot out of St. Mark's pigeons, Antonio continued.

"We spend our life fighting and eating" he said sadly. "And what for? Ulcers!"

It is Antonio's advice to me not to try to be a pigeon.

"People say we never had it so good," the old pigeon said. "We get a free roost on St. Mark's or the Doge's Palace and all the corn we can eat.

"Corn! Faw!" Antonio cried. "We eat and eat because it is our civic duty. But let me tell you, there isn't a one of us who doesn't wish he never had to look at another d- - -kernel of corn!"

"And", muttered Antonio as he flew away, "what I wouldn't like to do to 99 out of every 100 tourists, if only I dared and my civic duty permitted!"

Dave Boone Says:

IT LOOKS like there is going to be a check at last on the liberty to destroy America's liberty.

* * *

The commies are shrieking about Judge Medina "railroading people to jail." Well, if that was railroading it was the slowest railroad on earth. It was strictly a "local." The commies over in Europe run their trials "express." A man is hit by the locomotive first and tried afterward.

* * *

There's nothing much funnier than the Soviet's denouncing an American court which sits almost a whole year, under abuse and obstruction, before submitting the case to a jury.

* * *

The backbone of America is not in those who denounce this country, but in the housewives, the clerks, the stenographers, the salesmen, and the other citizens who make up our juries and seem to find something good in Uncle Sam.

Down Honey Creek Way

That Quiet Power

By LOIS ADAMS BYERS

WE LIVE and move as a part of majestic, quiet changes—daily miracles that sometimes find us blind and deaf to their vital import.

There is a stillness in the hour before dawn that lifts the spirit, leaving night behind, toward the promise of a new and changing day.

Have you watched the sunrise? Did you see the faint light etch the tops of distant hills, grow amber, rose and gold until it brimmed over, flooding the valley with warmth that sent fog ribbons rising?

Did you see the surge of autumn color creep over the woodlands, like a serene benediction upon the aging year?

Have you stood by a clear, still pool where a spring bubbles up from below and watched falling leaves move gently upon the water?

To watch a ship disappear over the horizon—to feel the wind from off the sea against one's face—to follow the graceful swooping curves of a petrel's flight—these are quiet experiences that leave a mark upon the mind and life and heart of one whose senses are atuned to understanding.

There is a tranquility of cold that creeps up the valleys on a frosty evening, gently changing and fixing the pattern of tomorrow's tasks.

It seems to me, the greatest matters of this atomic age are the quietly natural trends that the lie close to the grass roots and deep in the hearts of all men. There are trends toward fellowship among peoples of all creeds and colors; there are world-wide prayer groups and groups who find expression in acting or dancing; there are those who give wealth and those who give calloused hands for the highest good of their family, nation, world.

The poet Wordsworth spoke of the "still sad music of humanity of ample power to chasten and subdue"—but in the next breath he sang with serene faith of "the presence that disturbs me with the joy of elevated thoughts."

When enough of us have learned the joy of elevated thoughts humanity will swiftly change its tune from dirge to paean, from war song to doxology. Joy comes bubbling up from within, not with blare of brass bands or trumpets.

John Burroughs said, "The waters know their own, and draw the brook that springs in yonder height; so flows the good, with equal law, unto the soul of pure delight."

It would help, I guess, if every thinking person would spend a half hour every day just quietly grateful for the natural beauties that surround him.

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

Ask Shelby Council to Boost Firemen's Pay $15 Monthly

Seek Same Pay Given Policemen

Five Assessing Ordinances Passed

SHELBY Council here last night passed five assessing ordinances and took under consideration a request to increase salaries of regular Fire department members $15 per month. The proposed salary boost would place regular firemen on the same salary paid regular policemen.

Presentation of a formal request to the mayor is planned upon completion of the salary proposal survey. At present the police chief and fire chief each draw $260 per month. The assistant fire chief gets $225 and the captain of police draws $240. Regular patrolmen are paid $225 and firemen $210 per month.

Home Fashions Accent Color

NEW YORK — Top colors at the recent National Home Furnishings show were red and green. Red predominated as an accent in lampshades, bedspreads, and upholstered pieces used in any room in the house. It even found its way into the kitchen where a new stove was shown in fire-cracker red. Other stoves were cheerful, too, in pastel green, gray, yellow and black.

Color was the mainstay of this show. One bedroom combined hyacinth blue, forest green, pomegranate red with white painted hardwood double dresser and man's shirt chest. Vanity table and chair, headboard and lamp base were green. The chaise lounge was red.

A living room showed wood violet upholstered pieces, combined with pale green swivel chairs, black end and coffee tables. Forest green, antique gold and blue lapis added to the color scheme used effectively.

Take Hubby Along When Buying Hats

Here's a worthwhile tip to the ladies who've enviously been eyeing those new fall hats. Take your husband along when you go shopping and you likely will come out of the store with a more elegant and expensive chapeau than you otherwise would have purchased.

That's the advice given by one who knows whereof she speaks. She's Geneve Sheaffer, millinery buyer for a Dayton, O., department store, who says that most husbands, despite the complaining they may do at home about the cost of merchandise, are oblivious to price when it comes to getting the right kind of hat for their wives.

"Every man really wants his wife to look nice," explains Miss Sheaffer, "and no matter how much he growls at home he'll be the first to say, when he does the buying, that it's more practical to get a hat that costs a few dollars more than the budget sometimes permits."

She cites cases of men paying $15 or more for a hat that pleased them and enhanced the beauty of their wives who, had they been left to shop on their own, would have hesitated to spend as much as $5.95.

So Mr. Husband, observes Miss Sheaffer, "if we hat people, including your wife, are mad, just remember it was you who drove us to it!"

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE
For Wednesday, October 19

A fresh start, probably in a definitely new direction, in new fields geographically or in connection with a novel, unique or untried area of ideas or tactics, may prove advantageous and at the same time afford certain thrills or pleasures. Rash plunges, excesses, may cause loss or defeat, and beget unhappy reactions on domestic relations. It is advisable to watch small leaks or rash impulses.

A child born on this day may have unique talents, with fresh slants on putting over ambitious projects in strange places or contacts. Little encouragement may come from customary sources.

Designer Favors New Ideas

A woman should look like a woman, says Lilly Dache, who has been applying that principle to her hat designs for many years.

Now, in her first wholesale dress collection, the dynamic Lilly revives the era of Irene Castle, the days of the Merry Widow hat, the peg-top drape, the hobble skirt silhouette.

Mme. Dache, French, volatile and possessed of definite ideas, sometimes bordering on the violent, swishes luxurious fabrics and lush trimmings with a fine free hand, achieving an effect of elegance bound to have its effect on the national style picture.

Strictly sirenish in flavor are the low, revealing necklines, the daringly draped skirts and the outsize Merry Widow hats of black satin or velvet which highlight the Dache collection. There are, of course, plenty of slim, simple and youthful suits, plenty of demure evening skirts and blouses for the less daring. But the theme closest to the designer's heart is the vampire note.

There are can-can ruffles flaring unexpectedly at the knee of a dress with a tightly draped torso. There is an evening gown shirred and banded from neck to knee, blossoming into tiered ruffles below. There are dinner gowns with yards and yards of fabric draped on one hip, yet managing to achieve a sleek and tapered silhouette.

When Mme. Dache designs coats, she cuts them with plenty of yardage, muffles them up around the chin with huge collars, wraps them tight about the hips. Some of her hats have a feeling of height, others are huge picture hats, to frame the face and balance the silhouette.

Another trick which the designer draws from her capacious sleeve is the sheath evening dress which may be transformed indefinitely by addition and subtraction of boleros, cummerbunds and aprons.

Furnishing Apartment

By ELEANOR ROSS

SO many builders the country over are concentrating on one-room apartments both in building and remodelling jobs, that prominent decorators are giving this type of layout increased attention and furniture manufacturers are turning out special units adapted to it. For one faced with the problem of selecting furniture for a room that must provide for sleeping, dressing, dining and recreation, it is no easy matter.

A well-known decorator used mattresses and springs on legs in two attractive model one-room apartments recently. He placed a pair of twin beds at right angles in a corner in one — end to end, in the other—for luxurious lounging space. He chose two-piece bed slipcovers with shocking pink tops and white floral chintz dust ruffles to set the decorative theme for a career girl's apartment. Stunning blue, green and white homespun covered the bed in the apartment designed for a bachelor.

Furniture that fills more than one purpose should be chosen for comfortable, uncrowded living in this type of space. This includes cabinets rather than end tables at the ends of the beds, to cope with pillow and blanket storage. Choose drawer chests to store out of season clothing and to double as servers at mealtime. Manufacturers are concentrating on handsome chests in all styles and very modest price tags, and it should be easy to find pieces that harmonize with any type of decor.

Ingredients: For Filling — 1 pound dry cottage cheese, 1 egg, dash of salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoons finely crushed cracker crumbs or cracker meal. For Batter — 2 eggs, a cup cold water, 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon salt. Butter for frying, sour cream, currant or guava or beach plum jelly

Method: Prepare filling first —press the cheese through a strainer, add the egg, salt, sugar, and cracker crumbs or cracker meal and mix well.

To make the batter — Beat the eggs well in a mixing bowl with an electric mixer or rotary beater; add the water and beat again to combine. Add the flour gradually, and the salt, beating to make a smooth batter. (Strain batter, if necessary, pressing out any flour lumps.) Heat about ½ teaspoon butter in a 6-inch aluminum skillet over low heat until very hot. Pour in just enough batter (about 2 tablespoons) to cover bottom with a thin film; lift the pan from the heat with the left hand as you pour and tilt and swirl batter around bottom of pan so it will run evenly. Cook over low heat until pancake is set — about 1 minute; it should not brown. Turn out on waxed paper, fried side up, to cool. When all pancakes have been turned out place 2 level tablespoons of the cheese mixture in the center of the fried side. Fold lower half of pancake over cheese, fold over side sections next pressing them down, then fold over onto remaining section. When ready to serve put about a teaspoon of butter in the skillet over low heat, then carefully put in 4 of the pancakes. Fry slowly until they begin to get brown, then turn and fry on other side. Keep hot while you fry other pancakes. (Or use large size skillet and fry as many as possible at once.) Serve immediately with sour cream and jelly. Makes 12 pancakes.

The University of Illinois college of medicine, with 634 students, had the largest enrollment of any medical school in the nation during the 1947-48 term.

Arthur Murray Paid Billions Yearly As Shyness Overcome By Lessons

NEW YORK—Many people get rid of a feeling of inferiority today by lying down on a psychiatrist's couch.

And for $15 an hour—more or less—they talk away their troubles.

Long ago Arthur Murray used his head to figure a cheaper way to cure shyness—through the balls of the feet.

He began as a youthful $5 a week instructor in a dime-a-dance hall. Today, rich and bunion - free at 54, he operates a $22,000,000 annual dance business. In the last 37 years he has managed to cure practically everybody's shyness except his own.

"I figure in that time we have taught about 6,000,000 people to dance," he said the other day, sipping rather dolefully from a can of apricot juice. "We've enrolled about 2,000,00 in our studios, 3,000,000 by mail, and about 1,000,ooo by radio."

It has been some years since Murray had to wear out his own dancing pumps steering satchel-footed pupils around the floor. The Murray system now has about 194 affiliated studios of the dance across the nation. They employ some 5,000 teachers.

★

The cathedral of this rumba and waltz empire is a huge studio off Madison avenue in mid-Manhattan that grosses $1,200,000 annually. Naturally Murray has his office here.

"My job is looking after the decorating and the housecleaning," he said. "My wife does the rest."

Murray, who says he was gawky and shy himself as a boy, still appears mildly uncomfortable whenever he is asked a question. Pert Mrs. Marray, a dark slim little woman of tremendous energy, has the personality of the pair.

'Arthur still dances every single day when he doesn't have a cold—from five minutes to an hour," she said. "He is best at the rumba. He does a beautiful rumba. He used to do the jitterbug. But it's passe now. Only the older people do it.

"You know, as soon as the older people take up a dance the kids drop it."

One of Mrs. Murray's chores before getting to the office is to bake honey cakes and brownies for her husband.

"He has a sweet tooth—he lives on candy bars and ice cream," she laughted. "he is also a health nut. Keeps vitamin pills in the ice box, and requires the teachers to take flu shots."

★

Murray's great forte in the dance business has been a promotion skill rivaling that of the late Phineas T. Barnum. He has a deep knowledge of the psychology of shy people, and has used it to great advantage in his advertising. One example: his studio has an entrance through a regular office building—so students can come and go without letting the world know they are taking dancing lessions.

"Most of the adults who want to learn to dance are between 40 and 60," explained Mrs. Murray. "And 65 per cent of our pupils are men. The reason? Men study things —women don't. we're lazy."

The latest Murray gimmick is a lifetime course. Anyone who takes this $5,000 course of 1,000 hours can then return and dance free two hours a month for as long as his arches last. One Long Island schoolteacher is buying tow— She Just Loves to dance.

"Our course is different from the lifetime fountain pen offer," smiled Mrs. Murray. "We don't put them under water."

Plan Offers Education For Adults

Board Approves Eight Classes

The Mansfield board of education last night approved the establishment of eight adult education classes in the schools, some to run for a period of 12 weeks. The instructors will be paid $2 an hour for the 48 hour courses.

Automotive, electrical, machine shop, related mathematics, and blue print reading classes are being organized.

In addition to these classes, another has been started in apprentice training for bricklayers. This class meets each Saturday for a period of eight hours. It has an enrollment of 15 persons and is instructed by William McCune. Total reimbursement for this class is made to the schools by the state department of vocational education.

A class in property and casualty insurance meets each Monday from 7 to 9 p. m. with an enrollment of 30 students taught by W. G. Schultz, with no charge to the board of education.

James Loomis, city-county food sanitarian, has been teaching a class in food sanitation for restaurant employes. It has an enrollment of 150 and its conducted without expense to the board of education.

These shop classes are under the direction of Vinton Childs, automotive; R. D. Schaaf, electrical; E. P. Cook, machine shop; and Robert McFarland, mathematics and blue print reading.

The first class in auto mechanics for veterans and other interested Mansfielders, will be held in the vocational department of Senior high school, starting Wednesday.

V. H. Oberlander, head of the department, said anyone wishing to enroll in the class should be at the office by 7 p. m. Information about the class program may be obtained calling 4657-6, Oberlander said.

Schools Led By Carpenter

Carpenter Elementary school led the Mansfield school system in attendance for the first school month, according to a report released by Supt. of Schools W. L. Miller.

Carpenter's percentage of attendance was 98.20. Close on its heels was Prospect school with 98.10 per cent. Third place in attendance was taken by Brinkerhoff with 97.60 per cent.

Roscland elementary had the lowest percentage, 95.51.

Johnny Appleseed Junior high school had the highest number of truant students during the month—eight, while Senior high school was next with six.

More students were reported tardy at Senior high than at any other school. There were 117 there and 100 at Bowman elementary. However, Senior high has the largest enrollment of any school in the system.

According to the report, 4,940 pupils were neither tardy nor absent during the period.

Former Member Still Active In Organization

Scouts Build Confidence

MISS MARGARET ROONEY—executive secretary, Girl Scouts.

A few years ago a young girl, daughter of foreign-born parents, joined the first Girl Scout troop ever organized at the Friendly House and for several years she was one of its most active and enthusiastic members.

Graduation from high school ended her Girl Scout activities, but she was so much interested in the work that she volunteered as a leader for a group of younger girls.

Today, as for the past three years, this same young woman has devoted the one afternoon a week away from her office duties to planning meetings and social activities for her troop, which meets at the organization's Town House, since none of her girls have homes in which meetings can be held.

Recently in a conversation with Miss Margaret Rooney, Girl Scout executive secretary, the young woman said: "It was being able to work and play with someone my own age and feeling that I could compete with people who were my social superiors that interested me in the Girl Scouts."

"The Girl Scouts gave me a sense of confidence and brought out better qualities in all the girls, teaching us consideration of other people and a greater degree of respect for everybody", she said.

As she requested, Girl Scout officials put her in charge of a group of underprivileged girls and she is devoting much of her time to teaching the members of her troop the fundamental principals involved in being a Girl Scout.

The Mansfield young woman says her greatest thrill came when she had the opportunity of investing her own troop, and feels that by taking over leadership of the group she is partially repaying her debt of gratitude for the many pleasant hours she spent in Scout activities at the Friendly House.

The Girl Scouts are a Red Feather agency of the Community Chest whose 1949 campaign to raise $141,663 opened Monday in Mansfield.

FOOTBALL TOWN—

That's what Massillon is called in the November issue of Holiday magazine which reviews, in great detail, the background of the gridiron victories which has put the city on the sporting map. The Massillon Tigers' lair, which will be invaded this Friday night by the Mansfield Tygers, is reputedly sacred ground where the young Massillon youth must prove his worth in football or be scorned by the townsfolk. A Boosters' club, started by the still - held - in - reverence Paul Brown credited for starting the meteoritic rise to fame of the Massillon squad, gives new and genuine footballs to every boy baby born in the city. Often the football is the youngster's first toy. Present coach, Chuck Mather, fourth mentor at the school since the end of the Brown reign in 1940, is classed as an "outsider"—since he did not live in Massillon, play ball with the team or work under Brown. The Massillon aggregation has won every game so far this season.

DON DID IT—

Don Miller, The News-Journal's busy outdoors editor, has crashed into the 'big time' of outdoor writing. The featured article on Arkansas in the November issue of Sports Afield lists as its author D. G. Miller, who is none other than Don himself. The article is lavishly illustrated with eight pages of color and black and white photographs. Miller is an Ohioan by birth, but an Arkansas girl and the state both won his heart when he resided there after the war. His talk about Arkansas as the "Wonder State" for hunting and fishing turned to cash when he stopped talking and put the words down on paper for the nationally known magazine.

Educator Speaks In City

Shorter Term Under Study

Ohio will be short 10,000 teachers in two years if the present rate of training teachers continues, E. L. Hoon, director of field service of the Ohio Education association told members of the Mansfield City Teachers association yesterday.

Hoon spoke before the association at a meeting at the Rebecca Grubaugh school at 4 p. m.

"Schools and additions are not being built fast enough to keep pace with the increasing number of children needing schooling each year" Hoon declared.

"To have enough school space in two years we ought to complete a new 10-room building every day some place in Ohio," he said.

The United States as a whole will be short 200,000 teachers by 1953, Hoon added. This figure is based on the present number of students who are taking teacher training.

Current thinking is developing along the lines of six-month school sessions, Hoon added. That would leave well-trained teachers time to do "double shifts" each year. Another plan being considered by Ohio educators is to take the top 10 per cent of the high school graduates, train them intensively for three months and allow them to teach on an elementary level.

"We've got to make the teaching field more attractive if we are to induce more young people to enter it," Hoon said.

City Escapes

Supt. of Schools W. L. Miller said today that the shortage will not particularly apply to Mansfield.

"The main shortage is among rural school teachers," Miller said. "Most teachers are moving into town where conditions and salaries are better, consequently the rural teaching staffs are being depleted. There is little shortage among junior and senior high school teachers, except in specialized fields."

Miss Leona Miles, president of the association, had charge of yesterday's session during which seven of the nine candidates for school board posts were introduced by Miss Margaret Wadsworth, association secretary.

They included: Mrs. Howard Wenning, F. A. Berkey, W. O. Leedy, Richard H. Wolford, R. Nelson Neff, Floyd F. Smith and Kenneth H. Cadigan. The two others, Carl L. Stough and Harold J. George, were unable to be present.

C. A. Divelbiss, Woodland school principal, moved that the organization go on record as favoring the three-mill levy. It was unanimously endorsed.

George Sherman, Senior high teacher, was elected as a new candidate to the Ohio Education association convention in Columbus Dec. 29 and 30. Divelbiss will continue as a candidate for his second year.

L. L. Mishey, elementary supervisor, reported on present federal bills concerning aid to education.

The November meeting of the association will be a "Get Acquainted" party at Newman school with the Newman teachers as hosts.
